M. Ragins,

The event that Mr. Guzman is referring to was hosted by a not for profit organization called Anonymous. I was one of about 20 speakers at the event. The community was celebrating the three individuals elected, the hope for positive changes in the community and cultural entertainment. The city did not expend any finances for this event. All food and entertainment was donated (potluck). Confirmation that no money was spent on the event will be forthcoming from Ms. Grimm, the Cities Clerk Treasurer.

Thank you,
Juan Orozco
