

Complaint Description

Complainant: William "Bill" Miano

Respondent: James Barnfather

Bill Miano reported via the portal Wed, 10 July 2019 at 1:36PM

The PDC website states that:

According to the disclosure law, you become a candidate when you do one of these things: (...) state publicly that you are seeking office; or file a declaration of candidacy(...)

Once I become a candidate, then what?

Within two weeks* of the date you become a candidate, you must file a Personal Financial Affairs Statement and a Candidate Registration with the PDC, if required."

James Barnfather has stated publicly in the Sequim Gazette on March 20, 2019, and filed for office on May 13, 2019, of his intention to run for office. Both dates are well beyond the 2 week period to file the F1 and C1.

I sent Mr. Barnfather an email reminding him of his filing obligations on Sunday, June 30, 2019. It was sent to his email address provided on the "2019 Candidates Who Have Filed" from the Clallam County Elections office. As of today, there is still no information from Mr. Barnfather that I can find on the PDC website.

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

James Barnfather has not filed his F1 or C1 (Financial affairs statement or Candidate Registration) for his 2019 candidacy for Fire Commissioner, which deprives the public of the required information.

List of attached evidence or contact information where evidence may be found.

In the March 20, 2019 Sequim Gazette newspaper, James Barnfather declared that he intended to run for his current position again.

The quote:

"The fire district has one of its three commissioner positions up for election this year: Position No. 3, a six-year, non-partisan position currently held by James Barnfather. Barnfather said this week that he plans to run for his commissioner position.

Barnfather also electronically filed with the Clallam County Elections office on 5/13/2019 at 9:01 AM to run for his Fire Commissioner position again.

Miano to run for Fire District commissioner seat

William "Bill" Miano, a veteran of the fire service, has announced his candidacy for Clallam County Fire District 3 Commissioner election in 2019.

Miano has more than 21 years in the fire service as a career firefighter and paramedic, and is a volunteer firefighter with Clallam County Fire District 3.

The fire district has one of its three commissioner positions up for election this year: Position No. 3, a six-year, non-partisan position currently held by James Barnfather.

Barnfather said this week that he plans to run for his commissioner position.

Miano said he is running for a commissioner position in Fire District 3 because he's "passionate about providing a high level of fire protection and emergency medical service to the residents of District 3, while using tax dollars efficiently, eliminating waste and planning for future growth," he said, in a February press release.

"Fire District 3 missed an opportunity to use federal dollars to increase their firefighter staffing by not accepting the SAFER Grant (Staffing for Adequate Fire and Emergency Response) in 2017," Miano said. "Now those needed positions have to be funded exclusively with local taxes to provide the necessary service levels."

Miano said he hopes to "keep the district focused on providing a high level of service during this period of population growth and budget responsibly to allow the district to be able to accept grants in the future."

The Clallam County candidate filing period is May 13-17. The primary election is set for Aug. 6, with the general election slated for Nov. 5.
