Subject: Complaint regarding Breane Martinez, PDC Case 55599

Dear Robert Parker:

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) has completed its review of the complaint you filed on July 26, 2019. Your complaint alleged that Breane Martinez (the "Respondent") may have violated RCW 42.17A.205 by failing to timely register as a candidate within two weeks of declaring candidacy by filing a C-1 report (Candidate Registration) containing, among other things, the campaign's Treasurer and depository (banking institution).

PDC staff reviewed your allegations; the applicable statutes, rules, and reporting requirements; the response provided by the Respondent; and the applicable PDC reports filed by Respondent to determine whether they support a finding of one or more violations.

Based on staff's review, we found the following:

- The Respondent is a first-time candidate for School Director for North Kitsap School District who filed with the Elections Division as a candidate on May 15, 2019.
- Candidates are required to register with the PDC within two weeks of becoming a "candidate," as defined in RCW 42.17A.005(9) and WAC 390-05-200. Pursuant to RCW 42.17A.205, candidate committees are required to register with the PDC within two weeks of 1) being organized; or 2) first having the expectation of receiving contributions or making expenditures, whichever comes first. The Candidate Registration (C-1 report) serves the dual purpose of registering both the candidate and the candidate's committee.
- The Respondent filed a Candidate Registration (C-1 report) with the PDC on August 3, 2019 and selected the mini-reporting option. Mini-reporters are not required to submit C-3 and C-4 reports to the PDC disclosing campaign contributions and expenditures.
- Upon being notified of the missing C-1 report on August 2, 2019, the Respondent quickly replied and made a good-faith effort to resolve the issue by filing the missing C-1 within 24 hours.
- In her response, the Respondent indicated that an accident and subsequent hospitalization and surgery contributed to the late filing.

- Mitigating factors include: The Respondent quickly took corrective action when noncompliance was brought to her attention. A personal emergency or illness of the Respondent contributed to noncompliance. The Respondent's campaign is relatively small and unsophisticated, and she has limited filing experience due to her status as a first-time candidate and mini-reporter.

Based on these findings, staff has determined that, in this instance, failure to timely file the Candidate Registration (C-1 report) does not amount a violation warranting further investigation.

PDC staff is reminding Breane Martinez about the importance of timely filing all future PDC reports, including the candidate registration.

Based on this information, the PDC finds that no further action is warranted and has dismissed this matter in accordance with RCW 42.17A.755(1).
