Greetings Tabitha,

Please forgive my delayed response. In response to the complaint against my campaign, in my ignorance I followed the advice/direction of a national campaign organization/advisors. Hindsight, I'm realizing that they nor me were familiar with the Washington State WAC which you have detailed. My assumption was that since I was currently holding a seat designated for elected officials, that it was not improper to use re-elected language.

By 9/15, end of day, corrections will be made to the remaining signs, and if any other robo-calls are utilized in my campaign, they will be sent with the appropriate language: elect, return, retain.

Please let me know if this is sufficient and please extend my sincere apologies to those who have filed this complaint against my campaign.

Best,

Fa'izah Bradford
