

Complaint Description

Complainant: Bill Reed

Wbjreed reported via the portal Fri, 13 Sept 2019 at 3:06PM

On August 11, 2019, my wife and I came home to our residence to find a business card and a re-election campaign flyer in my door (See attached photo). It was brought to my attention that while we were gone, the current city mayor (Linda Lehman) was campaigning in our neighborhood for re-election. I was concerned of the use of an official city business card being used during the campaign. I went to City hall the following day to inquire if the card had been officially issue by and paid for by the city. I was informed that it was paid for by the city. I then approached City Councilman Jake Mokler and informed him of my complaint. He recommended that I file a complaint with your organization.
