PDC Support,

It does appear that Mr. Butler that is running for Edgewood City Council has written on his signs, noting vote for. However, it is with small sharpie and it cannot be read unless you get very close to the sign.

This provides Mr. Butler with a message that is a lie. By using a sharpie to correct the sign is not a way to make this right. If the Citizens of Edgewood can't read it, what is the point, that he is in compliance?

Did you check to see if he filed a C4 as required by all candidates?

This is very upsetting as my supporters have pointed out. Attached is a picture of how he corrected his signs. If this is acceptable, please advise as to what rule you are using to identify himself correctly to the community.

Respectfully,

Colleen Wise
