Erick O Agina

I tried to explain in earlier email the reason for the delay. I have the invoices and spreadsheets of several contributions (lumped into one). These are collected through paychecks and it takes me two-three hours to input all of the $1.00 - $25.00 contributions. There are several pages that have to be input. I lost the info that I had put in due to a hard drive crash. I had to start all over. I do this voluntarily and I hold down a full time job. I work 12 hours a day and am completely exhausted and stressed out over this situation. I am in no way trying to hide anything. We are currently moving our department to another building and it has completely consumed me. I do have a few days coming up for the holidays that I have off and should be able to sit down and get some of the entries done. I am sorry this has taken so long. Is there something I can do, beside send the reports that are not complete, that would prove I am trying to comply. I do not want and/or need this hanging over my head. Thank you.

I believe I sent the amended report you were looking for with the city and state for Carmen Green. If you need anything else, please send in a separate email as these are getting confusing. Thank you.
