What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

October 3, 2019

To whom it may concern:

I write to address my concern over apparent violations of PDC campaign reporting rules by Dale Q. Rice – Vancouver School District Board of Directors, Pos. 1. This involves C4 and C3 reports.

Given the numerous campaign signs (that went up in mid-September and continue to multiply) – see photos – we would have expected to see the following on the most recent C4 report:

- In-kind donations or in-kind loan for the signs (see attached photos)
- Invoice to show debt for the cost of the signs (see attached photos)
- Actual expenditures for the signs (see attached photos)
- Contributions to pay for the signs (see attached photos)

The current C-4 report notes only $6.85 in-kind contributions and expenditures and indicates a reporting period from 9/01/19 to 10/14/19. This appears irregular. How can Mr. Rice report he will receive and spend no funds (beyond $6.85) before the time period is complete?

In addition, no C3 report has been submitted at all.

Mr. Rice recently switched from mini reporting to full. All of his back-dated reports assert that he received zero money and spent zero money.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter given the proximity of the November election.

Sincerely,

Jim Luce
