

Complaint Description

Bret Uhrich (Mon, 4 Nov 2019 at 5:31 PM)

At 4:52pm on November 4, 2019, I received a phone call from 425-392-1692. I did not answer and the caller left a voice message. The voice message indicates that the message was a robo-call and stated as follows:

Hello, this is Debra calling with a reminder to return your ballot immediately. And vote to reject Referendum 88. R-88 establishes a costly, unelected government bureaucracy to enforce racial preferences. And R-88 hurts veterans by eliminating the job benefits they receive for serving our country. Please mail your ballot today, and vote to reject Referendum 88. Thank you. Paid for by RejectR88. Top Five Donor A+ Learning Center, Hunan Sizzling Pot, Zquil(???) and the American Coalition for Equality.

Under WAC 390-18-010(2), all advertising must clearly state "that it has been paid for by the sponsor (Example: (1) Paid for by the XYZ committee, mailing address, city, state, zip code; (2) Vote for John Doe, paid for by John Doe, mailing address, city, state, zip code)." Here, the advertising and disclosure does not have any disclosure of the mailing address, city, state and zip code for RejectR88. This incomplete disclosure is a violation.

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

We get far too many robocalls and spam calls now a days. 9 times out of 10, it's coming from people spoofing numbers through VOIP and we can do nothing about it. Here, we can identify someone making these annoying robocalls and see that they are sanctioned for not providing the required disclosures in addition to being incredibly annoying.
