Tabatha,

Thanks for this information. I am working with Scott Haley on the F-1 form. However I don't know where to respond to the complaint. Can you help me?

As we discussed on the phone after I filed for the position of Board Director my wife and I decided to move out of the District. I immediately discussed this with the County Auditor who informed me that because I was requesting to withdraw my name would not appear on the 2019 November ballot. He also told me that if my name did appear on the ballot my votes would not count. With this information I felt that I had completely withdrawn from the election. I therefore did not put forth any effort to raise funds or campaign in any way. In November my name did appear on the ballot.

After the election and it was determined that I had won and could assume office based on the outcome I was undecided on whether to take the position or not. My intent was to do what was in the best interest of the District and the Board. I discussed the options with the current elected board members, with the exception of Sara Knox who at the time had submitted her resignation for personal reasons, and the School Superintendent. After discussing the options I came to the conclusion that it was not in the best interest of the District or the Board for me to take the position. I therefore attended the Board meeting on November 12, 2019 and formally declined the position

Respectfully,

Tim Larson
