Thank you for your last email to let me know that I needed to file a C-1 report. I have now submitted the report and it shows as pending approval. I had not filed it because I did not receive any campaign contributions and misunderstood the requirements. I thought the C-1 was only needed if receiving campaign contributions which I did not. I did not file it after your previous email because I have no record of that email. I have scoured my inbox and deleted and junk files and don't see it. Again, thank you for taking a moment to let me know that I needed to file.

Make it a great day!
