To Whom It May Concern:

First, I thank you for the opportunity to correct these issues. I have gone in and updated the description of my expenditures on the ORAC software, and have upload the amended reports. I would like to apologize for leaving off the detailed information previously. This was an oversight on my part, and not done intentionally. Secondly, in response to the delay in reporting, you again have my apologies. None of the reports were submitted late on purpose, or to hide anything, as Mr. Morgan suggests. Life simply got in the way, and that is my fault. I have learned a few lessons here, and if I were to run again in the future I will be much better prepared for this part of the process. Please let me know if there is anything else I need to address or take care of.

Thank you for your time,
Mandi McDougall
