To Whom It May Concern ;

I am attaching documentation to show Mr Norm Smith's complaint is unfounded, and reveals he is personally omitting facts which disprove his allegation.

I use PayPal for on-line donations from my campaign website. My website is built using Wix.com. The built-in Wix PayPal Donate button does not offer the option to ask a donor for address and other information. For each donation via PayPal, I contact the donor and request the necessary information. If the information is not provided, I refund the full donation.

On June 30th, I received an email from PayPal about a new donation. Image attached.

On July 1st, I sent an email to Mr. Smith asking for his address and other info, stating I needed it form my campaign finance report. Image attached.

Mr. Smith responded with the requested information, which is included in my campaign finance records. Image attached.

When he replied to my request for information on July 1st, he knew his complaint was no longer valid and purposely chose to not reveal this to the PDC.

If you need further information, please contact me at your earliest convenience.

Respectfully yours,

Paul F Mahre
