Thank you for the opportunity to respond.

The complaint incorrectly claims that the advertisements placed by the Columbia Voice PAC failed to include proper disclaimer and party ID in a single radio advertisement. Attached please find the ad in question as it was provided to the stations to be broadcast along with the radio logs confirming the same (the message from the station transmitting the same is included below). As you can hear both the party ID and appropriate disclaimer information is included.

While we are not required to speculate as to the source of the complaint's audio/video recording it may be that a television advertisement produced by the PAC was recorded and that information was either mistakenly or intentional provided to the PDC as if it were a radio advertisement. This hypothesis is further supported by the fact that the radio advertisement placed was 60 seconds while the one attached to the complaint is 30 seconds. There is no additional identifying information on the clip attached to the complaint so it is almost impossible to precisely know.

The aspect of the complaint concerning the C6 is similarly without foundation. Our committee treasurer Heather Clarke accurately listed the expense at issue in the complaint as "Radio Advertising". The question marks are a technical issue with the data entry program. When the Treasurer selected the candidate name from a drop down the program populated parentheses around "Bill" and that's how it translates to the filed report. She selected the candidate name correctly and the program populated 6 questions marks, something our Treasurer would have no reason to do.

I believe this addresses all open matters but please let me know if you would like to discuss further.

Best,

Mark
