To whom it may concern,

It has come to my attention that Frank Wallbrown, a candidate for Washington State Public Lands Commissioner has violated Washington State's campaign finance laws (RCW 42.17A). The details of these violations are as follows:

1) Failure to provide a financial affairs statement to the Public Disclosure Commission, (Violation of RCW 42.17A.700(2), and RCW 42.17A.710)

This candidate has failed to file a completed Financial Affairs Statement (F-1) form with the PDC.

I will point out that the PDC has for many years provided helpful reminder emails to candidates to provide these documents and help them comply, but this candidate has clearly decided to ignore the law this time around.

2) Failure to file contribution or expenditure reports, despite registering campaign as full reporting (Violation of RCW 42.17A.235, .240)

This candidate filed their C1 report indicating they would comply with full reporting, yet has failed to even once file a C3 (contributions) or C4 (expenditures) report for this campaign. This candidate has created a logo and promoted his campaign on Facebook (see attached) and possibly in other places. He should report whatever expenditures and contributions his campaign has received so far in order to be semi-compliant with Washington State's campaign finance laws.

It should also be recognized that this candidate may be attempting to conceal information from the public for nefarious and very questionable justifications. If this proves to be the case here, this candidate could also be sanctioned under RCW 42.17A.750 (2)(a), which could lead to criminal or civil prosecution.

Please let me know if you need any additional information or evidence to support these very clear and obvious violations of Washington State's campaign finance laws by this political candidate.

Best Regards,

Glen Morgan

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

If someone is going to run for a major state-wide office and sign up to do complete and full campaign reporting, then they have some obligation to comply with Washington State's campaign finance laws. Just ignoring the law, while convenient is not something that the bureaucracy can allow. The public has a right to know this information.

List of attached evidence or contact information where evidence may be found

see attached

List of potential witnesses with contact information to reach them

The candidate should be adequate

Certification (Complainant)

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that information provided with this complaint is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
