Complaint Description
Steve Lydolph (Wed, 5 Aug 2020 at 4:49 PM) Front and back of mailer.
What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
Failing to report expenditures deprives the public of their right to know what political/PAC campaign activities are being carried out and who is paying for them. Neither Evergreen Progress, 2020 nor COMMUNITY PROGRESS (MC2), 2020 have reported to the PDC an expenditure for a mailer sent out to votes (in the 42nd LD).

Two Local Candidates... A Federal Investigation.

 THE BELLINGHAM HERALD (July 23, 2020)

Federal officials looking at this alleged Whatcom campaign ad violation in U.S. mail

Federal officials are investigating a state House candidate over an allegation of illegal campaign activity, state election officials said.

Complaints were filed this week with the state Secretary of State's Office and the state Public Disclosure Commission, but because the allegation involves the U.S. mail and postal workers, the matter is being handled at the federal level.

An investigation stems from a post on the Facebook page of Alicia Rule of Blaine, Democrat who is challenging Republican state Rep. Luanne Van Werven for one of two House seats in the 42nd Legislative District, which covers Whatcom County from north Bellingham to the Canadian border.

On Friday, July 17, Rule posted a photo of a campaign ad wrapped around her ballot, which both arrived in the mail on the same day.

It is illegal to use postal employees in a campaign.
