Complaint Description
Dave Churchman (Wed, 26 Aug 2020 at 9:41 AM) On Tuesday August 18th, 33 minutes into a City of Puyallup Council Meeting, Council member Robin Farris repeated a rant she has made numerous times in social media, letters to the editor and elsewhere in support of her Council colleague Julie Door who is a candidate for State Senate for the 25th District. This was related to election material routed in the US mail by Door's opponent that Farris and Door had taken exception to. Farris went on for several minutes and at no time did Door who is also Mayor and has a gavel to curtail such an inappropriate speech. Door failed to maintain ethics and compliance with election law with her gavel as it was to her benefit. This provided advantage to Door in a venue paid for by taxpayers. In my opinion it was election abuse by both Farris and Door.
What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
Biased information given broad viewing in the media supporting a Senate candidate using taxpayer provided assets (building, platform, tv time, computer time, staff time) in the production, hosting and dispersal of visual and audio election propaganda.
