

Respondent Name
Jerome Delvin
Complainant Name
Lillian "Randy" Slovic
Complaint Description
Lillian Randy Slovic (Mon, 12 Oct 2020 at 3:33 PM) https://jeromedelvin.com/ I don't know if Mr. Delvin has a post-nuptial agreement that prohibits him from revealing his party affiliation. He is close friends with Sharon Brown having voted to appoint her to an open state senate seat.
What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
Mr. Delvin has a website which includes a short film that could be used for television advertising. Neither the website nor the film includes Mr. Delvin's party affiliation. Party affiliation indicates your core beliefs. Hiding that information means that you don't want voters to know what your core beliefs are. The PDC was created to promote transparency. Mr. Delvin doesn't wish to be transparent.
List of attached evidence or contact information where evidence may be found
https://jeromedelvin.com/ Furthermore, Mr. Delvin has been a public office holder since 1999 -- 21 Years!!! I would think he'd know the rules by now. However, it appears to me that none of these long-term office holders believe the rules apply to them. The PDC commission reinforces their opinion by treating them like first-time candidates, in some cases even bending over backwards to award them retro-active exemptions.
List of potential witnesses with contact information to reach them
Anybody can look at the website. Here it is again: https://jeromedelvin.com/
Certification (Complainant)
I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that information provided with this complaint is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.