Complainant Name
Janet Thiessen
Complaint Description
Janetthiessen39 (Thu, 15 Oct 2020 at 6:49 PM) On Wednesday, October 14, 2020, voters in Pierce County Council District Six received a mail piece from Pierce County Job Creators ... in opposition to Jani Hitchen a candidate for County Council. Contrary to the RCW requirements cited above, Pierce County Job Creators... has failed to update its PDC report to reflect this expenditure.
What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
This Committee's failure to report expenditures in a timely manner so close to the start of voting endangers voters' ability to gauge activity for and against candidates.
List of attached evidence or contact information where evidence may be found
two sides of mail piece
List of potential witnesses with contact information to reach them
Certification (Complainant)
I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that information provided with this complaint is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Building Bridges, Not Barriers

Jason Whalen is a retired U.S. Army officer, small business owner, and community leader. On the Lakewood City Council, Whalen has served with distinction to build a better community for everyone. That's why he's endorsed for the County Council by business groups, labor unions, community leaders, Republicans, Democrats, and Independents.

Help our economy recover - for everyone.

Jason Whalen (R) will focus on economic recovery. This means providing relief for small businesses, protecting the most vulnerable, and ensuring affordable housing.

Hold county government accountable.

Jason knows we need to make the most of every tax dollar. He will scrutinize the county budget to ensure the most cost-effective delivery of services with available resources.
