Complaint Description

Glen Morgan (Thu, 29 Oct 2020 at 1:52 AM)

To Whom it may concern,

It has come to my attention that Clark County is not for Sale PAC appears to have violated a variety of Washington State's campaign finance laws (RCW 42.17A) during the current 2020 general election in a Clark County Council race. The details of these violations are as follows:

1. Failure to identify PAC Sponsor in the name of the PAC as required by law (Violation of RCW 42.17A.205(5), WAC 390-16-011a(2))

Clark County is not for Sale PAC is a "sponsored committee" because it only has one $10,000 donor (See RCW 42.17A.005(48)). As is clearly stated in WAC 390-16-011a(2):

"A sponsored political committee must include on its C-1pc the name of at least one sponsor in the committee's name"

As is readily apparent in both this committee's C1PC (see attached PDC Tracking #100879937), their sole contribution report (See attached C3, PDC Tracking #100992014) clearly identifies the sole $10,000 received on August 13, 2020 and used by this PAC during the election to come from Don Welch of Endicott City, Maryland. This PAC should have called itself "Clark County is not for Sale PAC, sponsored by Don Welch," but it failed to do so and explicitly violated the law.

This violation was continued on the mailers distributed by this PAC where the formal sponsorship was also not included in the disclosure statement at the bottom of the back of the flier (see attached). The PAC did identify Don Welch as the sole "Top 5 donor", but a continuing violation of WAC 390-16-011a(2) was committed with these mailers which were sent out in the 21 days before the election.

One political explanation for why this PAC attempted to conceal the sponsorship identification of the sole sponsor and funder of this PAC might be the fact that this dark money sponsor was an out of state relative of the candidate, Matthew Little who is running for office against the current incumbent Clark County councilmember who was targeted by these negative attack ad mailers. Regardless of the reasons for attempting to conceal the identity of the sponsor with this PAC mailer, this was not a good excuse to break the law.

Clark County may not be for sale, but this PAC certainly was, and only one person bought it. This sponsorship should have been accurately reported in the mailers, and on the C1PC.

2. Failure to provide adequate detail of the number of mailers sent by this PAC as required by law (Violation of RCW 42.17A.235, RCW 42.17A.240, and WAC 390-16-037)

There were very few expenditures by this PAC. It really isn't asking too much for this well-funded PAC with experienced consultants to get this right. However, they chose to conceal the quantity of mailers sent on their expenditure report filed Oct 27, 2020 (See attached C4 – PDC Tracking #101011552). This is an explicit violation of WAC 39-16-037 Example B – which states "... the purpose must include the following details:

Vendor Name	Purpose	Amount
ABC Printing	5,000 brochures	$3000

This is a well-known requirement to everyone involved in this PAC and their very experienced vendor, Win-Power Strategies (who nevertheless appears to be a serial PDC violator)

3. Failure to report Earmarked Contributions (Violation of RCW 42.17A.270, WAC 390-16-033)

There can be no doubt that the $10,000 provided by Don Welch was earmarked for the purpose of assisting his friend/relative candidate Matthew Little who is running for the Clark County Council position. Don Welch is a maxed-out contributor to the Matthew Little campaign (See attached PDC Report #100956625). It should be noted that another person named "Brenda K. Ashworth" who resides at the same address as Don Welch in Ellicott City, Maryland (although this was reported erroneously on the C3 report as a "Washington" address, also maxed out their contributions to Matthew Little's campaign at the same time.

This PAC did nothing this year except take Don Welch's additional $10,000 earmarked cash and spend it attacking Matthew Little's opponent. Mr. Welch's contribution was clearly earmarked for this cause, and the earmarked contributions were never reported as is required in RCW 42.17A.270 and WAC 390-16-033.

4. Failure to report legally required details on the Independent expenditure report (Violation of RCW 42.17A.260(3)(c), WAC 390-16-060)

In addition to the violation described in Allegation #2 (see above) this PAC also concealed the required details clearly required in RCW 42.17A.260(3)(C). As can be seen on the attached Independent Expenditure Report C6 (PDC Tracking #10561), these details are clearly lacking. They must disclose (and not continue to conceal) the total number of mailers sent out as this independent expenditure (see copies of these mailers attached).

Feel free to contact me if these violations are not clear or specific enough in this case.

Best Regards,

Glen Morgan

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

The public has a right to know that a maxed out out-of-state donor to a Clark County Council race has illegally earmarked $10,000 to assist Matthew Little's campaign by attacking his opponent. The public has a right to know this earmarked contribution was never legally reported, the sponsorship of this PAC was concealed from the public, the required details of the mailers were not reported on either the expenditure reports or the special IE report (C6) filed by this committee. While Clark County may not be for sale, it is clear that the Clark County is not for Sale PAC certainly has been bought.

List of attached evidence or contact information where evidence may be found

All documents are attached

List of potential witnesses with contact information to reach them

The donor Don Welch from Maryland should be contacted directly. As an out-of-state donor he may have been misled by either Matthew Little himself or the vendor, or someone else involved in this PAC, and he may not have realized this crew wouldn't follow the law.

Certification (Complainant)

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that information provided with this complaint is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Medviga does not follow the advice of local health experts.

“Medviga attended a rally for a Republican gubernatorial candidate where social distancing and mask-wearing were largely ignored... He also ineloquently challenged public health officials regarding the response to the virus, and posted a video in which he compared shutdown orders to martial law. If Medviga is reelected, he must demonstrate leadership rather than contributing to a culture that has prevented the county from fully emerging from shutdown orders.”
