Complaint Description
Salley Bull (Thu, 29 Oct 2020 at 11:27 AM) This lack of filing accurate and timely PDC campaign reports was the subject of 2 Okanogan County commissioners' conversation, October 20, in their hearing room. Commissioner Jim DeTro, (Republican, District 3) said to re-election candidate, Chris Branch (Independent), "We (implied the Republican party members) have sent several warnings to Shauna." Branch ended the conversation at that point as it was inappropriate. Contributors, known, has been listed. Expenses, known, that has been publicly seen, has been listed. Contact information is listed. Beeman PDC forms and late filings are on record.
What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
Shauna Beeman, prefers Republican party as a candidate for Okanogan County Commissioner District 1 position, has chose not to file any PDC forms during the period starting July 19 through October 24, a full 3 months. The rash of late filings made on Oct. 24 included 2 C3 forms, both of which declared contributions for the Primary Election. Interestingly, the July 21, 2020 C3 shows $150 received during the Primary campaign, but marked for the General Election campaign. That form, #10101035, precedes the C3 fund-raiser declaration form, #10101036. This is seen as a deliberate deception. No contributions have been reported since July 21 yet the Okanogan County Republican Party wrote a donation check of $500 on Oct. 3, as reported to the PDC by their committee, which was received and proudly announced by Beeman on her Facebook page, Oct. 6. She chose not to report it and by comparing income and expenditures, other contributions obviously have not been declared. Looking over her 3 C4 forms (filed on Oct. 24) Beeman apparently bought 25 large signs, $868.04 on the same day as her fund-raiser, July 17. I question the date. Beeman has also neglected to report the newspaper ads published in September and October; the radio ads of September and October; and the KOMW Open Line interview, an exclusive 20 interview for $150. As she has a website, with a donate button, there may be other unreported expenses, such as on-line payment fees, website set up and maintenance fees, none of which has been reported. Beeman not only missed filing weekly any contributions but chose not to file the monthly C4s of July and August, (due on the 10th), and October 13th, the required 21st day filing before an election. Instead she filed 5 late and incomplete forms on Oct. 24. She has now missed the required 7 day C4 filing, due on Oct. 27. The lack of timely reporting of contributions and expenses, the incorrect dates and incorrect primary/general designations, and not fully reporting known general election information point to a complete disregard to follow state campaign regulations and disregard to her voting public's need - and right - to know who is bank-rolling her campaign, and what she is spending the money on.
