What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
The committee against SKSD 2021 Levy has received unreported in-kind contributions, defined by 42.17A.005(15), in the form of a webpage at https://citizenssupportingsouthkitsapschooldistrict.com/. Mr. David Kimball attested to these facts in his response to PDC complaint 82098. Additionally, aside from Mr. Kimball's response to complaint 82098, there is not information on this webpage or otherwise available to indicate who is hosting the webpage and making expenditures on his behalf, constituting concealment or contributors. A typical cost to host a website is approximately $100 per year, beyond the $25 limit for disclosure. Mr. Bryant has not registered or filed any statements with the PDC disclosing this contribution. This impacts the public considerably, as the sources of contributions are unknown.

Rebuttal to the Argument For

Programs like AP, Sports, extra nurses, and choir are basic education items already paid with non-levy dollars. Student enrichment activities or programs doesn't include 185 additional employees, social & emotional advisors, webmasters, or roving security patrols. Should we pay 85% for salaries, pay raises and perks with our levy dollars while student achievements scores keep falling? Math now at 27% - language arts at 68%. SKSD claims special expenditures help our students to succeed. How?
