Complaint Description
Robert Parker reported via the portal (Sat, 6 Feb 2021 at 7:41 AM) 1) Digital advertising being done with no record of the purchase reflected in PDC filings. (See screen capture on 2-6-2021) The digital splash screen found on the web makes no mention of who is paying for the ad. If you should happen to click through it takes you to the campaign website but you must click through to the website and then find at the bottom that the website is paid for by the campaign. 2) A search of each C3 and C4 mentions nothing of advertising purchased. 3) The campaign website has a contribution page reflecting PayPal and Credit Card donations can be made however there is no mention of these fees for processing in the PDC filings nor any monthly of other bank processing fees. 4) It appears the school district has allowed buses and/or employee time to be used to arrange school buses for photographing of a promo photo used on the campaign website. 5) PDC expenditure reports reflect no cost or in-kind for website creation or maintenance or hosting. 6) SKSS reports purchasing stickers for signs with no detail of quantities on 01/21/2021 and 01/06/2021. PDC SKSS Expenditures page.JPG 115.81 KB PDC SKSS Donate page.JPG 77.59 KB PDC SKSD2.JPG 194.06 KB PDC SKSD.JPG 174.32 KB
What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
Deception of true expenditures and failure to disclose who is paying for advertising of bond is. Use of taxpayer equipment for levy campaign purposes.

This continuing campaign committee has been warned prior in 2016 about not properly disclosing political advertising and appears to be again. See this warning issued by the PDC.
