PDC Case 34207

Report of Investigation

I.

Background, Complaint and Allegations

- The Washington Society of Certified Public Accountants (CPA) is a statewide professional membership organization dedicated to serving CPAs, educating consumers about CPAs and the services they provide, and encouraging students to study accounting and enter the profession.
- The Washington Society of CPAs PAC has been registered as a continuing political committee and reporting with the PDC dating back to at least the mid 1990's. In addition, the Washington Society of CPAs Public Accountants has been registered with the PDC as a Lobbyist Employer and filing the annual Employer's Lobbying Expenses report (L-3 report).
- On April 4, 2016, the Washington Society of CPAs PAC (Committee) filed an amended Committee Registration (C-1pc report) with the PDC as a continuing committee, selecting the Full Reporting Option and listing Kimberly Scott as Committee Manager, Trina Doty as Committee Treasurer, and Carmen Aguiar, Marcia Benson, and Richard Jones as Committee Members.
- On January 9, 2017, the Committee filed an amended C-1pc report with the PDC as a continuing committee under the Full Reporting Option and listing Ms. Scott as Committee Manager and Ms. Aguiar as a Committee member. The amended C-1pc report added Hayden Williams as the new Committee Treasurer, and Benjamin Anderson and Laurie Anderson as new Committee Members.
- On April 11, 2018, Glen Morgan filed a complaint against the Committee alleging a number of violations of RCW 42.17A during calendar years 2015 through 2017. Exhibit #1.

- Specifically, the complaint alleged violations of RCW 42.17A.235 and .240 for failing to timely and accurately file Monetary Contributions reports (C-3 reports), and Summary Full Campaign Contribution and Expenditure reports (C-4 reports), and attached a spreadsheet of alleged late filed reports, and the complaint made several other alleged violations of RCW 42.17A.
- On November 14, 2018, the PDC opened a formal investigation into the Committee concerning the allegations listed in the complaint and held an Initial Hearing (Case Status Review Hearing) pursuant to RCW 42.17A.755 and WACs 390-37-060 and 390-37-071.

1. April 2016 C-3 report totaling $4,036: The April 2016 C-3 report was a seven-page C-3 report disclosing $4,036 in monetary contributions received from 59 individual CPA Members or CPA firms. The C-3 report was required to have been filed by the Committee on May 10, 2016 and was filed 104 days late and 20 days after the August 2, 2016 Primary Election had been held.

The C-3 report disclosed the Committee made one deposit on April 30, 2016 for contributions received during the entire month of April 2016. Based solely on the information disclosed on the report, it appeared the Committee failed to timely deposit monetary contributions received during the month of April within five business days of receipt in accordance with RCW 42.17A.220.

Beginning June 1, 2016, the Committee was required to file weekly C-3 reports every Monday for contributions deposited the previous five calendar days. The two remaining contributions included the following:

- A $15,000 monetary contribution was received from Moss Adams LLP on July 20, 2016, should have been deposited by the Committee no later than July 27, 2016, and disclosed on a C-3 report due August 1, 2016. CPA PAC Response from Hayden Williams, Treasurer:

- Mr. Williams submitted several email responses in which he stated the CPA PAC is “a professional membership organization who periodically ask for contributions from our members” and uses those funds to make contributions to candidates for Washington State Executive and Legislative candidates, caucus political committees and other political committees. (Exhibit #5: response copied from the Freshdesk Case ticket, and includes all of the quotes or references listed below). He stated the following in the responses:

“On account of personnel and role/responsibility changes within the PAC and Society, the PAC inadvertently missed certain filing deadlines. Immediately upon learning about this inadvertent oversight, I personally called the PDC, identified the problem, and asked about appropriate corrective action. The PDC advised us to update our filings as quickly as possible, which we did. We have also implemented organizational changes to ensure that these issues do not re-occur.”

“Since notice of the problem, the PAC has met all of its filing deadlines. The PAC certainly never purposefully avoided any filing obligations and has never filed any reports with inaccurate information. To the contrary, as demonstrated by my affirmative outreach and our immediate curative efforts, we were interested in compliance and transparency.”

- Mr. Williams acknowledged the CPA PAC failed to timely file C-3 and C-4 reports during the timeframe listed in the complaint spreadsheet. He stated to the best of “our knowledge” the committee has “never filed an inaccurate report for either the C-3 or C-4” reports. He stated the Committee is in compliance and filing C-4 reports based on the political committee report schedule posted on the PDC website, and the C-3 reports are being “filed every Monday (except when it falls on a holiday) and the corresponding deposits are made on that Monday the C3 is filed.”
- Mr. Williams stated there were two instances when the CPA PAC failed to file a Last Minute Contribution report (LMC report) for contributions of $1,000 or more that were received during the special reporting period as required within 48 hours of receipt. He stated the contributions were disclosed on C-3 reports, but late and added they are now “aware of the rules for the two special reporting periods before the primary and general elections, and now have processes in place to check diligently each day during these special periods for any contributions over $1,000.”
- Concerning the remaining allegations in the complaint, Mr. Williams stated the following:

1. The CPA PAC has filed C-1pc reports when there have been any changes to the committee structure or information, but they failed to file those reports timely in accordance within 10 days of a material change. He added “We have corrected this as well. As soon as there is any change in the WSCPA PAC committee structure, the WSCPA reports that change within the 10-day period.”
2. The Committee has never made any illegal unauthorized expenditures of funds by anyone listed on the registration, and “has always made it a practice that the treasurer deposits the funds.”
3. The committee “has always maintained its books for more than 5 years and has done it accurately and ethically.”
4. The CPA PAC made no expenditures to produce and distribute any political advertising, so there was no need for them to include the sponsor identification on any advertising. In addition, he added the committee did not make or “engage in any independent expenditures” so there was no need for the CPA PAC to file a C-6 report.

- 4.2 RCW 42.17A.220 requires political committee to deposit monetary contributions received shall be deposited by political committee members, paid staff, or treasurers in a depository in an account established and designated for that purpose. File a Formal Complaint - Glen Morgan

Glen Morgan reported (Wed, 11 Apr at 12:02 AM) via Portal Meta
To Whom it May Concern --

It has come to my attention that the Washington Society of CPAS PAC, its treasurer, its officers, and any parent or subsidiary organization associated with it (hereafter collectively referred to as "respondent") have habitually and willfully committed frequent and multiple violations of RCW 42.17A. Additionally, I have reason to believe that other violations of this chapter have occurred beyond what I have identified below.

1) Failure to file accurate, timely C3 and C4 reports, failure to timely deposit contributions. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.235, .220)

State law requires that candidates and committees file frequent, accurate, reports of contributions, expenditures, in-kind contributions, debt, pledges, and loans (C3s and C4s). The reports must be compliant with both state law and PDC regulations (WAC 390). State law also requires that contributions must be deposited within 5 business days of receipt. Unfortunately, the respondent has failed on numerous occasions to do this, including, but not limited to the late reports detailed in the attached exhibit. Additionally, the respondent has failed to report debt and properly break down/detail expenditures.

(Please See Exhibit A: "Illegally late reported C3 & C4 reports")

2) Failure to report last minute contributions. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.265)

On information and belief, respondent has failed to properly report last minute cash or in-kind contributions of $1000 or more.

3) Failure to list committee officers, timely file/update C-1/C-1PC. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.205, see WAC 390-05-245)

On information and belief, respondent failed to list all committee officers on form C-1/C1-pc, which is required by RCW 42.17A.205(2)(c). I believe they also failed to timely file/update form C-1/C-1PC to include relevant material changes in information as required by state law.

The committee is required to list all individuals who, in conjunction with others, likely made, directed, or authorized expenditures, strategic or policy decisions on behalf of the committee.

State law requires that candidates/committees file their C1/C1-pc statement of organization within 2 weeks of accepting contributions or making expenditures, whichever is sooner.

On information and belief, the respondent has failed to abide by this requirement.

4) Illegal unauthorized expenditure of funds by an individual not listed as an officer on form C-1/C1-pc. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.425)

State law requires that no expenditures may be made or incurred by any candidate or political committee unless authorized by the candidate or the person or persons named on the candidate's or committee's registration form.

On information and belief, respondent failed to abide by this requirement.

5) Failure to preserve books of account, bills, receipts, and all other financial records of the campaign or political committee for not less than five calendar years following the year during which the transaction occurred. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.235 (6)).

On information and belief, the respondent has failed to abide by this requirement.

6) Illegal depositing of campaign funds into bank account by person other than the treasurer or deputy treasurer. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.220 (1))

On information and belief, the respondent has failed to abide by this requirement.

7) Failure to include sponsor ID. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.320)

State law requires that all political advertisement/independent expenditures contain sponsor identification, which includes the sponsor's name and address as well as other donor information. Mediums defined as political advertisement that are required to contain sponsor ID include Facebook pages and advertisements per WAC 390-05-290.

On information and belief, the respondent has failed to abide by this requirement.

8) Failure to timely file form C6 reporting independent expenditure. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.255(2))

State law requires that independent expenditures must be reported to the PDC in a timely fashion. The form for disclosing independent expenditures is identified as form C6 according to the PDC.

On information and belief, the respondent has failed to abide by this requirement.

The PDC should investigate the possibility that the respondent committed the above violations maliciously, which would be a class C felony per RCW 42.17A.750 (2)(c). If the PDC determines that is the case, they should refer the case to the Attorney General's office for criminal prosecution immediately.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you need any additional information.

Please note the attached exhibit is provided in two different file formats for staff convenience.

Best Regards,

Glen Morgan

Hayden Williams replied, a year ago (Tue, 11 Sep 2018 at 6:46 AM) to:
pdcc@pdcc.wa.gov To Whom it May Concern:

On behalf of the WSCPA PAC, I am responding to the formal complaint filed by Glen Morgan.

On account of personnel and role/responsibility changes within the PAC and Society, the PAC inadvertently missed certain filing deadlines. Immediately upon learning about this inadvertent oversight, I personally called the PDC, identified the problem, and asked about appropriate corrective action. The PDC advised us to update our filings as quickly as possible, which we did. We have also implemented organizational changes to ensure that these issues do not re-occur. Since notice of the problem, the PAC has met all of its filing deadlines.

The PAC certainly never purposefully avoided any filing obligations and has never filed any reports with inaccurate information. To the contrary, as demonstrated by my affirmative outreach and our immediate curative efforts, we were interested in compliance and transparency. Below, I address each of the specific accusations and how we have corrected (if applicable) those issues.

- 1) Failure to file accurate, timely C3 and C4 reports, failure to timely deposit contributions. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.235, .220)
 - The WSCPA filed C3s and C4s late. To our knowledge have never filed an inaccurate report for either the C3 or C4. We are now filing C4s timely based on the schedule posted. The C3s are filed every Monday (except when it falls on a holiday) and the corresponding deposits are made on that Monday the C3 is filed.
- 2) Failure to report last minute contributions. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.265)
 - The WSCPA has filed contributions of $1,000 or more in a special reporting periods twice where we did not inform the PDC within the 48 hour window. We reported the contributions, but late. We are aware of the rules for the two special reporting periods before the primary and general elections, and now have processes in place to check diligently each day during these special periods for any contributions over $1,000.
- 3) Failure to list committee officers, timely file/update C-1/C-1PC. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.205, see WAC 390-05-245)
 - The WSCPA files a C-1 when any changes in the PAC committee structure changes, but did not do it timely as the rules states. We have corrected this as well. As soon as there is any change in the WSCPA PAC committee structure, the WSCPA reports that change within the 10-day period.
- 4) Illegal unauthorized expenditure of funds by an individual not listed as an officer on form C-1/C1-pc. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.425)
 - The WSCPA has never made any illegal unauthorized expenditures of funds by anyone listed on the C-1.
- 5) Failure to preserve books of account, bills, receipts, and all other financial records of the campaign or political committee for not less than five calendar years following the year during which the transaction occurred. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.235 (6)).
 - The WSCPA has always maintained its books for more than 5 years and has done it accurately and ethically.
- 6) Illegal depositing of campaign funds into bank account by person other than the treasurer or deputy treasurer. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.220 (1))
 - The WSCPA has always made it a practice that the treasurer deposits the funds.
- 7) Failure to include sponsor ID. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.320)

- The WSCPA does no political advertising which requires our Sponsor ID. We are a professional membership organization who periodically ask for contributions from our members.

8) Failure to timely file form C6 reporting independent expenditure. (Violation of RCW 42.17A.255(2))

- The WSCPA does not engage in any “independent expenditures” and does not need to file a C-6.

Again, we acknowledge, appreciate the gravity of, and are sorry for our inadvertently late filings. But these errors were minor and have been cured. And we have taken the necessary steps to be in compliance and expect to continue these corrective actions into the future.
