Thank you for your inquiry about Burien United.

Following your email regarding the complaint, we want to point out that we have absolutely nothing to do with fundraising.

We have raised no money, given no money, received no money and spent no money. We are a small group of Burien residents who made a Facebook page. Note that Burien United does NOT intend to do anything with funds or money and that our posts are "home-made" and created by us.

This Facebook page was private until very recently. Until then, it was a by-invitation-only page to our friends and neighbors. Before we decided to make it open to all, we decided to remove the posts about candidates.

Just for clarification, was there even a reason to do so? We saw this as a mere way to express our right to an opinion, the same way we would to talk about a chef or a shop. Right now, our page doesn't contain any particular candidates and we talk about the issues in our community.

Thank you for letting us know your thoughts.

Sincerely,

Burien United
