| Complaint Description | Glen Morgan reported via the portal (Tue, 19 Oct 2021 at 5:52 PM) To whom it may concern, It has come to my attention that Tukwila City Councilmember Tom McLeod has violated Washington State's campaign finance laws (RCW 42.17A). The specifics are as follows: 1) Tukwila City Councilmember Tom McLeod has violated RCW 42.17A.710 (Exhibit-005.pdf) (and also a violation of WAC 390-24-203 (2)) regarding his Statement of Financial Affairs (F1) covering 2018 (Exhibit-031.pdf). Namely, he failed to report compensation paid to him by the Center for Popular Democracy (CPD) to attend their Local Progress (LP) political event in July 2018 in Minneapolis, MN. (Note: LP is a "project" of CPD. Exhibit-050.pdf) This is only one political trip among many concealed from the public in collusion with other Tukwila Councilmembers, who were also involved in similar inappropriate travel and compensation (and it appears to also be a violation of RCW 42.17A.550/555). They concealed this compensation from the public by not including it on their F1s, and by deliberately failing to follow their own Travel Policy (Exhibit-101.pdf), which requires oral or written reports of such travel. No written or oral reports were ever made, making this travel invisible to the public. Meanwhile, This collusion also involved a Tukwila staff member, who aided them in concealing their actions from the public by using private emails and directing payments to herself, instead of to the Finance Department, as required by the Tukwila Travel Policy. (Exhibit-101.pdf) See Exhibit-000.pdf for an overview, placing this complaint in context with other violations, and Exhibit-020.pdf for additional evidence of collusion to conceal third-party compensated travel. These violations are detailed below, with attached exhibits: 2018-- In July 2018, Tukwila Councilmember Tom McLeod attended the annual LP convention in Minneapolis, MN. (Exhibit-236.pdf) The following sequence of exhibits is important to understand what actually occurred, and what McLeod failed to report to the PDC on his F1 covering 2018. (Exhibit-031.pdf) On Friday May 18, 2018 Ari Swartz (CPD) sent an email message about "Financial Aid" for their upcoming conference in July 2018. Tukwila Legislative Analyst Laurel Humphrey forwarded that message to Tom McLeod later that day. (Exhibit-241.pdf) In that message Ari Swartz said, "We will cover up to 3 nights hotel @ double occupancy... If you would like to upgrade to a single, you can do so and pay the difference of approximately $100/night" So CPD was prepared to pay the entire cost of the hotel, if McLeod shared a room with another attendee of the conference. Swartz also said that CPD would "reimburse $200 for flights or mileage costs." On June 21, 2018 Tarsi Dunlop (CPD) sent an email message confirming McLeod's "hotel &amp; financial aid" for the conference. (Exhibit-286.pdf) This confirmation stated, "During our convening, we will provide food and beverages to members..." It also showed that McLeod had chosen to have a "single" room instead of double occupancy, which meant someone would need to pay for the other half--approximately $100/night. And Tarsi Dunlop also confirmed the room was booked for Thursday, Friday, Saturday (July 12, 13 and 14). So the amount to be paid by CPD on McLeod's behalf should have also been approximately $100/night, or $300. |

On July 9, 2018 Legislative Analyst Laurel Humphrey reminded McLeod and two other Councilmembers about saving receipts because, "The auditor has caught us on that one in the past." (Exhibit-268.pdf)

On May 30, 2018 McLeod sent an email message to Laurel Humphrey stating, "Regarding my flight to Local Progress in Minneapolis, I would like to leave the morning of Thursday, July 12, and return as late as possible on Sunday evening (arrive 11pm or midnight). If there are other Councilmembers leaving Thursday, July 12, maybe we can fly together." (Exhibit-265.pdf)

Evidently, they didn't fly together, because on Thursday July 12th, McLeod caught a Supershuttle to the Hilton Minneapolis (Exhibit-062.pdf) Note: Supershuttle "Boarding Pass" says Passengers: 1. The Supershuttle cost was $16.

The round-trip Delta flight for McLeod was $504.40. (Exhibit-258.pdf) Including the $16 Super Shuttle, this means CPD would pay $200 of the transportation cost, leaving the City of Tukwila to pay the remaining $320.

Unfortunately, that's not exactly what happened. There's several confusing items to note on the Hilton Minneapolis hotel folio for "McLeod, Thomas." (Exhibit-061.pdf) This is a public record obtained from the City of Tukwila via Public Disclosure Request (PDR). The folio shows:

1. That McLeod arrived 7/12/2018 at 2:47 PM and departed 7/14/2018 at 11:20 AM. So he didn't stay 3 nights, but only 2.
2. That there were 2 adults staying in the room and the room rate is $179.
3. That McLeod's home address is listed as 1730 M Street NW, Washington DC. (That's the address of the Abigail Night Club--more than 2,700 miles from Tukwila. Exhibit-063.pdf)

Who was that 2nd adult on the nights of July 12th and July 13th? The normal room rate is $179/night, and the folio shows 2 nights at $89.5 (plus taxes) for a total of $202.54. So CPD indeed covered half, but McLeod charged the other half--$202.54--to his City of Tukwila P-Card. (Exhibit-267.pdf) CPD was willing to pay the full room rate if another conference attendee shared the room, so that 2nd adult couldn't have been a attendee. Again, who was that 2nd adult? I thought perhaps his wife flew to Minneapolis and shared the room, but then I discovered that McLeod has already been divorced. .And besides, the Tukwila Travel Policy says, "The City will not assume costs for a spouse, partner or guest." So the citizens of Tukwila should not have paid over $200 for someone else to stay in that hotel room with McLeod for 2 nights. Who did the citizens pay for? Why didn't McLeod simply pay for that person himself?

From all the evidence it appears that Councilmember Tom McLeod had other plans for this trip to Minneapolis than simply attending this conference. He didn't stay at the hotel the night of the 14th, but he told Laurel Humphrey that he wanted to catch a flight "as late in the day as possible" on Sunday the 15th. (Exhibit-265.pdf) This was planned in advance. Where did he stay the night of the 14th? What was he doing during the day on the 15th? And again, who stayed with him at the hotel on the nights of July 12th and July 13th? Why did he use a false address on the hotel folio? Why did he keep the trip secret by not reporting the gift compensation on his F1? And upon returning, why didn't he give a "written or oral" trip report to the Tukwila City Council as required by their own Travel Policy? McLeod needs to explain these actions to someone. And the other Tukwila Councilmembers need to explain why they "looked the other way" and never challenged him.

Here's another important point regarding the hotel folio. (Exhibit-061.pdf) Folios are not only used for tracking charges while a guest is at the hotel, but also for issuing refunds or collecting unpaid charges after the guest has departed. Like for example, damages resulting from a wild-party in a hotel room. So using an accurate address on the folio is vital for financial accountability. So why would McLeod falsify his address? That's potential fraud if there was any money owing. Furthermore, why didn't the City of Tukwila catch this?

According to Tukwila's own website Councilmember Tom McLeod is a "Tax Accountant" (Exhibit-025.pdf) and as such he should know the importance of accuracy and transparency. Out of all Tukwila Councilmembers McLeod should be held to a higher standard--his official reports should be thorough and accurate, especially reports to the PDC. Furthermore, McLeod is "campaigning" on his skills as an accountant to help him gain votes; (Exhibit-026.pdf) yet he did not report gift compensation from CPD on his F1 covering 2018. If being an accountant is a "selling point" of his campaign, what does it mean if he's actually indifferent toward following the PDC financial disclosure laws? Or even worse, if he has deliberately concealed gift compensation--received from an organization that previously engaged in voter fraud! (See Exhibit-050.pdf and Exhibit-043.pdf showing the connections between the CPD, ACORN, and voter fraud.) This effort to conceal gifts was clearly in collusion with other Tukwila Councilmembers, who ALL had to "look the other way" regarding their own Travel Policy and reporting to the public. The public has a right to know who is giving gifts to their elected officials, especially if that person wears the title "accountant" like a badge of honor.

Through a targeted Public Disclosure Request from the City of Tukwila I received confirmation that CPD paid the City of Tukwila $600 total. (Exhibit-298.pdf) This included three entries of "LP National Convening Travel Reimbursement" presumably as financial aid of $200 each for three Tukwila Councilmembers attending that event--De'Sean Quinn, Zak Idan, and Tom McLeod.

In summary, McLeod failed to report the following items on his F1 covering 2018 (Exhibit-031.pdf):

1. Gifts in the form of food and beverage--Unknown dollar value
2. Gift of reimbursed transportation expenses--$200
3. Gift of one-half lodging expenses--$202.54
4. Any other gifts related to this travel event, not explicitly identified above.

And lest there's any doubt about whether Tukwila Councilmember Tom McLeod KNEW it was wrong to accept such gifts, and hide them from the public, CPD themselves included the following legal notice regarding ethics and gifts, sent directly to McLeod via email, "Members should ensure that their attendance at the conference and receipt of financial aid is permissible under local regulations pertaining to ethics and gifts..." (Exhibit-286.pdf) Thus, McLeod had no excuse for NOT reporting these gifts to the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC).

I request the PDC to inform McLeod that he MUST revise his 2018 F1 to include all such gifts related to this event.

I plan to include the foregoing information in an Ethics Complaint to the City of Tukwila, just for reference.

Surprisingly, this is the first complaint I have filed against this Councilmember, so there is no history of campaign finance violations to reference in this case. Hopefully, this doesn't become a pattern for this politician.

Glen Morgan

Here are the two missing exhibits. I'm sorry I missed those in my original submission.

I think you are correct that Exhibit 13 was not referenced, but it can still be included regardless.

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

The public has a right to know who is funding secret political getaways in other states. Corporate sponsorship of these trips should be reported as required by law on the financial affairs forms submitted to the PDC and the public has a right to know. This information should not be concealed by use of private emails, financial aid kick-back schemes through the city, and in open collusion with political entities and other elected officials.

Overview Statement

I've uncovered a major scam affecting cities all across the United States. Outside "progressive" organizations are buying influence in local governments by providing partial compensation for elected officials to attend covert and even overt political events. Because this is partial compensation, the local governments are picking up the tab for the remainder of these travel expenses, camouflaged as official city travel. While not naming political parties, they are nevertheless promoting political policies at public expense, and covering it up to prevent the public from becoming aware. The cover-ups themselves often violate open records laws, by such means as communicating through secret or private email accounts, instead of using accounts provided by the public agency. This effectively prevents the public from obtaining proof of wrongdoing via Public Records Requests. Occasionally, they use public email accounts, which has provided me with the evidence I have thus far, but also the evidence revealing their use of secret emails in the process. Keeping these violations hidden is only possible by ignoring traditional safeguards against corruption and abuse, such as oral or written reports of such travel, with complicity by other elected officials and city employees, who fail to enforce their own laws and simply look the other way. In truth, many of them are also in on the scam too.

While I don't have evidence of actual money changing hands, that could be included too. Nevertheless, bribery really isn't needed, because this travel strokes the ego of these elected officials -- making them feel important while traveling at public expense, and living an elite lifestyle they couldn't afford had they not been elected. Staying at expensive hotels and resorts and eating at expensive restaurants, these are virtually all-expense-paid vacations. It's merely bribery by another name, leveraged with tax dollars.

Meanwhile, the progressive organizations who organize travel events constantly lobby the now compromised officials to support progressive policies; such as, defunding the police, combating anthropogenic climate change, and supporting the homeless industrial complex. They even write proposed legislation and draft press releases. So instead of elected officials taking direction from their own constituents, they are literally taking direction from outside organizations who provide them with paid vacations and entertainment. Again, bribery by another name.

This scam is clear to see in the City of Tukwila. I've been following politics for many years and when I find particular agencies are lacking transparency it usually means they have something to hide. So then I dig deeper.

In Tukwila I first became aware of Councilmember De'Sean Quinn because of his many campaign finance violations. So I began digging deeper through many Public Records Requests. Initially I focused exclusively on Quinn, but over time I realized the secrecy and lack of transparency was much more widespread, also involving additional Tukwila City Councilmembers and some city staff too. I found the City Council was holding lavish City Council Retreats in remote areas, like expensive hotels and resorts, where the public could not easily attend. So I began attending some of these retreats myself and video-taping the proceedings. At every retreat I was the only member of the public attending, and it became clear their goal was to exclude the public, while enjoying a lavish "vacation" at their expense. I also found the minutes of these retreats were often vague, not fully documenting what had transpired. This was clearly a culture of concealing things from the public--namely the people who were footing the bill. So I dug even deeper and uncovered the major scam described above.

Currently, I'm filing a series of PDC Complaints and Ethics violations to show through exhibits how all these jig-saw puzzle pieces fit together in Tukwila. The assembled picture will be an ugly display of political corruption.

Tom McLeod--PDC Complaint

It has come to my attention that Tukwila City Councilmember Tom McLeod has violated RCW 42.17A.710 (Exhibit-005.pdf) regarding his Statement of Financial Affairs (F1) covering 2018 (Exhibit-031.pdf). Namely, he failed to report compensation paid to him by the Center for Popular Democracy (CPD) to attend their Local Progress (LP) event in July 2018 in Minneapolis, MN. (Note: LP is a "project" of CPD. Exhibit-050.pdf) This is only one trip among many concealed from the public in collusion with other Tukwila Councilmembers, who were also involved in similar inappropriate travel and compensation. They concealed this compensation from the public by not including it on their F1s, and by deliberately failing to follow their own Travel Policy (Exhibit-101.pdf), which requires oral or written reports of such travel. No written or oral reports were ever made, making this travel invisible to the public. Meanwhile, This collusion also involved a Tukwila staff member, who aided them in concealing their actions from the public by using private emails and directing payments to herself, instead of to the Finance Department, as required by the Tukwila Travel Policy. (Exhibit-101.pdf) See Exhibit-000.pdf for an overview, placing this complaint in context with other violations, and Exhibit-020.pdf for additional evidence of collusion to conceal third-party compensated travel. These violations are detailed below, with attached exhibits:

In July 2018, Tukwila Councilmember Tom McLeod attended the annual LP convention in Minneapolis, MN. (Exhibit-236.pdf) The following sequence of exhibits is important to understand what actually occurred, and what McLeod failed to report to the PDC on his F1 covering 2018. (Exhibit-031.pdf)

On Friday May 18, 2018 Ari Swartz (CPD) sent an email message about "Financial Aid" for their upcoming conference in July 2018. Tukwila Legislative Analyst Laurel Humphrey forwarded that message to Tom McLeod later that day. (Exhibit-241.pdf) In that message Ari Swartz said, "We will cover up to 3 nights hotel @ double occupancy... If you would like to upgrade to a single, you can do so and pay the difference of approximately $100/night" So CPD was prepared to pay the entire cost of the hotel, if McLeod shared a room with another attendee of the conference. Swartz also said that CPD would "reimburse $200 for flights or mileage costs."

On June 21, 2018 Tarsi Dunlop (CPD) sent an email message confirming McLeod's "hotel & financial aid" for the conference. (Exhibit-286.pdf) This confirmation stated, "During our convening, we will provide food and beverages to members..." It also showed that McLeod had chosen to have a "single" room instead of double occupancy, which meant someone would need to pay for the other half--approximately $100/night. And Tarsi Dunlop also confirmed the room was booked for Thursday, Friday, Saturday (July 12, 13 and 14). So the amount to be paid by CPD on McLeod's behalf should have also been approximately $100/night, or $300.

On July 9, 2018 Legislative Analyst Laurel Humphrey reminded McLeod and two other Councilmembers about saving receipts because, "The auditor has caught us on that one in the past." (Exhibit-268.pdf)

On May 30, 2018 McLeod sent an email message to Laurel Humphrey stating, "Regarding my flight to Local Progress in Minneapolis, I would like to leave the morning of Thursday, July 12, and return as late as possible on Sunday evening (arrive 11pm or midnight). If there are other Councilmembers leaving Thursday, July 12, maybe we can fly together." (Exhibit-265.pdf)

Evidently, they didn't fly together, because on Thursday July 12th, McLeod caught a Supershuttle to the Hilton Minneapolis (Exhibit-062.pdf) Note: Supershuttle "Boarding Pass" says Passengers: 1. The Supershuttle cost was $16.

Tom McLeod--PDC Complaint

The round-trip Delta flight for McLeod was $504.40. (Exhibit-258.pdf) Including the $16 Super Shuttle, this means CPD would pay $200 of the transportation cost, leaving the City of Tukwila to pay the remaining $320.

Unfortunately, that's not exactly what happened. There's several confusing items to note on the Hilton Minneapolis hotel folio for "McLeod, Thomas." (Exhibit-061.pdf) This is a public record obtained from the City of Tukwila via Public Disclosure Request (PDR). The folio shows:

1. That McLeod arrived 7/12/2018 at 2:47 PM and departed 7/14/2018 at 11:20 AM. So he didn't stay 3 nights, but only 2.
2. That there were 2 adults staying in the room and the room rate is $179.
3. That McLeod's home address is listed as 1730 M Street NW, Washington DC. (That's the address of the Abigail Night Club--more than 2,700 miles from Tukwila. Exhibit-063.pdf)

Who was that 2nd adult on the nights of July 12th and July 13th? The normal room rate is $179/night, and the folio shows 2 nights at $89.5 (plus taxes) for a total of $202.54. So CPD indeed covered half, but McLeod charged the other half--$202.54--to his City of Tukwila P-Card. (Exhibit-267.pdf) CPD was willing to pay the full room rate if another conference attendee shared the room, so that 2nd adult couldn't have been a attendee. Again, who was that 2nd adult? I thought perhaps his wife flew to Minneapolis and shared the room, but then I discovered that McLeod has already been divorced. .And besides, the Tukwila Travel Policy says, "The City will not assume costs for a spouse, partner or guest." So the citizens of Tukwila should not have paid over $200 for someone else to stay in that hotel room with McLeod for 2 nights. Who did the citizens pay for? Why didn't McLeod simply pay for that person himself?

From all the evidence it appears that Councilmember Tom McLeod had other plans for this trip to Minneapolis than simply attending this conference. He didn't stay at the hotel the night of the 14th, but he told Laurel Humphrey that he wanted to catch a flight "as late in the day as possible" on Sunday the 15th. (Exhibit-265.pdf) This was planned in advance. Where did he stay the night of the 14th? What was he doing during the day on the 15th? And again, who stayed with him at the hotel on the nights of July 12th and July 13th? Why did he use a false address on the hotel folio? Why did he keep the trip secret by not reporting the gift compensation on his F1? And upon returning, why didn't he give a "written or oral" trip report to the Tukwila City Council as required by their own Travel Policy? McLeod needs to explain these actions to someone. And the other Tukwila Councilmembers need to explain why they "looked the other way" and never challenged him.

Here's another important point regarding the hotel folio. (Exhibit-061.pdf) Folios are not only used for tracking charges while a guest is at the hotel, but also for issuing refunds or collecting unpaid charges after the guest has departed. Like for example, damages resulting from a wild-party in a hotel room. So using an accurate address on the folio is vital for financial accountability. So why would McLeod falsify his address? That's potential fraud if there was any money owing. Furthermore, why didn't the City of Tukwila catch this?

According to Tukwila's own website Councilmember Tom McLeod is a "Tax Accountant" (Exhibit-025.pdf) and as such he should know the importance of accuracy and transparency. Out of all Tukwila Councilmembers McLeod should be held to a higher standard--his official reports should be thorough and accurate, especially reports to the PDC. Furthermore, McLeod is "campaigning" on his skills as an accountant to help him gain votes; (Exhibit-026.pdf) yet he did not report gift compensation from CPD on his F1 covering 2018. If being an accountant is a "selling point" of his campaign, what does it mean if he's actually indifferent toward following the PDC financial disclosure laws? Or even worse, if he has deliberately concealed gift compensation--received from an organization that previously engaged in voter fraud! (See Exhibit-050.pdf and Exhibit-043.pdf showing the connections between the CPD, ACORN, and voter fraud.) This effort to conceal gifts was clearly in collusion with other Tukwila Councilmembers, who ALL had to "look the other way" regarding their own Travel Policy and reporting to the public. The public has a right to know who is giving gifts to their elected officials, especially if that person wears the title "accountant" like a badge of honor.

Through a targeted Public Disclosure Request from the City of Tukwila I received confirmation that CPD paid the City of Tukwila $600 total. (Exhibit-298.pdf) This included three entries of "LP National Convening Travel Reimbursement" presumably as financial aid of $200 each for three Tukwila Councilmembers attending that event--De'Sean Quinn, Zak Idan, and Tom McLeod.

In summary, McLeod failed to report the following items on his F1 covering 2018 (Exhibit-031.pdf):

1. Gifts in the form of food and beverage--Unknown dollar value
2. Gift of reimbursed transportation expenses--$200
3. Gift of one-half lodging expenses--$202.54
4. Any other gifts related to this travel event, not explicitly identified above.

And lest there's any doubt about whether Tukwila Councilmember Tom McLeod KNEW it was wrong to accept such gifts, and hide them from the public, CPD themselves included the following legal notice regarding ethics and gifts, sent directly to McLeod via email, "Members should ensure that their attendance at the conference and receipt of financial aid is permissible under local regulations pertaining to ethics and gifts..." (Exhibit-286.pdf) Thus, McLeod had no excuse for NOT reporting these gifts to the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC).

I request the PDC to inform McLeod that he MUST revise his 2018 F1 to include all such gifts related to this event.

I plan to include the foregoing information in an Ethics Complaint to the City of Tukwila.

Pattern of Concealing Gift Compensation

Introduction

This exhibit describes how Tukwila City Councilmembers and certain city staff colluded to conceal inappropriate travel and gift compensation for the years 2016, 2017, and 2018. It also describes my efforts to understand whether this was deliberate cover-up or merely an oversight to fully disclose. Note: even a oversight is a violation, but "intent" is important to determine whether a violation is malicious. I'll present evidence below that this ongoing cover-up was indeed (and still is) a malicious and deliberate effort to conceal wrongdoing from the public.

I conducted most of my investigation through the focused use of Public Disclosure Requests (PDRs) and by reviewing publically available records online. My investigation into Tukwila has thus far occupied several years and will likely continue for a few more.

Background

RCW 42.17A.700 requires certain public officials in Washington state to file an annual Statement of Financial Affairs (F1) with the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC). The purpose of the F1 is to inform the public how these officials were compensated during the prior year. The necessary Contents of the F1 are defined in RCW 42.17A.710. (Exhibit-005.pdf)

The state anticipates that while pursuing their official duties public officers will incur reasonable expenses. However, such expenses should normally be paid by the agency they serve, not by a third party. When a third-party does pay these expenses this is considered a "gift" or "gift compensation" and the amount of that compensation needs to be disclosed on the official's next annual F1. RCW 42.52.150 (Exhibit-007.pdf) defines limitations on gifts given to public officials, with paragraph (5) referring to "gifts in the form of food and beverage". And RCW 42.52.010 (Exhibit-021.pdf) contains the definition of gift. NOTE: According to the definition there could be some debate on whether or not food and beverages and even travel and lodging are always a reportable "gift" under all circumstances. However, according to RCW 42.17A.710 (l) & (m) (Exhibit-005.pdf) there's no doubt these items still need to be disclosed on the next annual F1, whatever they are called. I'm referring to them as "gift compensation" because they're clearly something "of economic value for which no consideration is given" and the state requires them to be disclosed.

The Tukwila Travel Policy (Exhibit-101.pdf) requires City Councilmembers to, "Upon returning from a class or conference, Councilmembers will prepare an oral or written report for the Council." The entire City Council is the recipient of such a report, so I believe a failure to enforce this obligation falls on all of them.

Evidence

Much of the communication for this travel was conducted using private email accounts, instead of using email accounts provided by the City of Tukwila. So when I asked for records via PDRs, a lot of the information was missing. That was a "red flag" that they were trying to conceal something they didn't want the public to know. Frequently, initial communications for any given travel event began using private emails. I had to rely on those few emails which were forwarded to an official City of Tukwila email account to decipher what had occurred. Throughout the various complaints, which are still largely in-work, I plan to identify when there's evidence of private emails being used. That evidence will be scattered among different exhibits.

Upon reviewing thousands of records obtained by PDR and reviewing hundreds of hours of City Council videos on Tukwila's own website I could NEVER find ANY evidence that they EVER reported EVEN ONCE on any travel where they received gift compensation from outside organizations. Yet they FREQUENTLY reported on travel to OTHER EVENTS, such as the National League of Cities (NLC) and Association of Washington Cities (AWC). Why the discrepancy? Why did they provide oral reports on other travel events, but not for those for which they received compensation? And why didn't they report the compensation on their F1s? Both obligations to report were missing!

I can demonstrate through PDC complaints that four Tukwila City Councilmembers failed to properly report gift compensation on their F1s. That much is simple. But the dilemma is how can I present evidence of something that was supposed to occur (an oral or written report), but didn't? There is no evidence. The relevant evidence is their failure to report on inappropriate travel compensation, in contrast to other travel. The evidence to the contrary is conspicuous by its absence. Early in my investigation it became clear this was deliberate collusion by other Councilmembers to conceal evidence of illegal compensation -- compensation in the form of reimbursed expenses by third-parties.

To confirm my suspicion I chose one travel event and asked via PDR for any records where a report was given. Their reply? "No Responsive Records" (See email exchange below.)

RE: PUBLIC RECORDS REQUEST RECEIVED 7/10/2019

The City of Tukwila is in receipt of your public records request received via email in the City Clerk's Office on July 10, 2019. Due to an unforeseen and extended illness within the City Clerk's Office, our office will be assisting in processing some of the City's public records requests. In summary, the request is for Councilmember De'Sean Quinn's prepared oral or written report of his attendance at the New American Leaders Conference in Washington DC in November 2017.

The Revised Code of Washington (RCW) requires a prompt response to all requests for public record. Within five business days, the City must:

1. Make the record available for inspection or copying; or
2. Provide an internet address and link on the agency's website to the specific records requested; or
3. Acknowledge that the request has been received and provide a reasonable estimate of when records will be available; or
4. Request clarification and to the greatest extent possible, provide an estimate of the time to respond if the request is not clarified; or
5. Deny the request and provide a statutory reason as to why the request is being denied.

City staff has completed their search and determined no responsive records are available.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 425-392-7090. Please respond to this email to ensure you are in receipt. Thank you.

Attention Public Records Officer,

I am filing this as an official request for public records pursuant to RCW 42.56.

Please see attached files as background.

File 2017.pdf.pgs264-276.pdf is an extract of 13 pages from a file obtained from the City of Tukwila via Public Disclosure Request. It shows that Councilmember De'Sean Quinn traveled to Washington DC in November 2017 to attend a conference of the New American Leaders.

File WhatWeDo-NAL.pdf is a print from the New American Leaders web site. This organization prepares immigrants to run for political office. As such, attendance at this conference at taxpayer expense is a misuse of public funds.

File CC-POL-06 Council Travel Policy.pdf is the City of Tukwila Travel policy for City Council members. Section II.C states:

"Upon returning from a class or conference, Councilmembers will prepare an oral or written report for the Council."

Please provide any public records proving that "upon returning" Councilmember De'Sean Quinn prepared either an oral or written report of his attendance at this conference.

While I believe this request is clear, as the statute requires, please construe this request liberally. However, if you need further clarification about this request, please feel free to contact me.

I would prefer to receive these records digitally via email.

Best Regards,

Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now (ACORN) is an international collection of autonomous community-based organizations that advocated for low- and moderate-income families by working on neighborhood safety, voter registration, health care, affordable housing, and other social issues. They, along with a number of other community unions, are affiliated under ACORN International.<sup>[1]</sup>

Organization

In the US, ACORN was composed of a number of legally distinct nonprofit entities and affiliates including a nationwide umbrella organization established as a 501(c)(4) that performed lobbying; local chapters established as 501(c)(3) nonpartisan charities; and the national nonprofit and nonstock organization, ACORN Housing Corporation. ACORN's priorities included: better housing and wages for the poor, more community development investment from banks and governments, better public schools, labor-oriented causes and social justice issues. ACORN pursued these goals through demonstration, negotiation, lobbying for legislation, and voter participation.<sup>[2]</sup>

History

Founded in 1970 by Wade Rathke and Gary Delgado,<sup>[3]</sup> at its peak ACORN had over 500,000 members and more than 1,200 neighborhood chapters in over 100 cities across the U.S.<sup>[4][5]</sup> as well as groups in other countries. In 2004, ACORN International was created to aid the spread of ACORN's model to other countries.<sup>[1]</sup> For example, there has been or currently is an ACORN presence in Argentina, Canada, Mexico, Peru<sup>[6]</sup> and the UK,<sup>[7]</sup> with affiliate groups in Scotland<sup>[8]</sup> and France.<sup>[9]</sup>

In the US, ACORN suffered a damaging nationwide controversy in the fall of 2009 after James O'Keefe and Hannah Giles secretly made, edited and released videos of interactions with low-level ACORN personnel in several of their offices, leading to several investigations by state officials that concluded the videos were inaccurately portraying the personnel as encouraging criminal behavior.<sup>[10][11][12][13][14][15][16][17]</sup> The organization didn't recover in the US and dissolved,<sup>[18][19][20][21][22]</sup> with ACORN members and organizers forming new organizations.<sup>[23][24][18]</sup> ACORN groups outside of the US continued unaffected. ACORN, under ACORN International, still works within the US through its Home Savers Campaign, for example.<sup>[25]</sup>

Issues and actions

Predatory lending and affordable housing

ACORN investigated complaints against companies accused of predatory lending practices. ACORN also worked to support strict state laws against predatory practices, organized against foreclosure rescue scams, and steered borrowers toward loan counseling.<sup>[26]</sup> Following a three-year campaign, Household International (now owned by HSBC Holdings and renamed HSBC Finance Corporation), one of the largest subprime lenders in the country, and ACORN announced on November 25, 2003 a proposed settlement of a 2002 national class-action lawsuit brought by ACORN. The settlement created a $72 million foreclosure avoidance program to provide relief to household borrowers who were at risk of losing their homes.<sup>[26]</sup> The settlement came on the heels of an earlier $484 million settlement between Household, Attorneys General, and bank regulators from all 50 U.S. states.<sup>[27]</sup>

Education

ACORN opposed the privatization of some NYC schools, favoring its own Charter School plan.<sup>[28]</sup>

Voter registration

Since the 1980s, ACORN conducted large-scale voter registration drives,<sup>[29]</sup> focusing primarily on registering poor and minority citizens.<sup>[30][31]</sup>

In addition to conducting voter registration drives, ACORN worked to remove obstacles to voter registration. In 2006, it brought a lawsuit in federal court in Ohio against the Ohio Secretary of State, at that time Ken Blackwell, and the Director of the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, alleging that, during the period that included the 2004 United States election voting controversies, the defendants had committed multiple violations of the National Voter Registration Act of 1993. The district court dismissed the case, but that decision was reversed in 2008 by the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.<sup>[32]</sup> The parties agreed to a settlement, under which the defendants agreed to implement several measures to facilitate registration of low-income voters to bring the state into compliance with the National Voting Rights Act.<sup>[33][34][35]</sup>

Gun control

In 2006, ACORN intervened on behalf of Jersey City, New Jersey, in a lawsuit brought against the city challenging a local ordinance that limited individuals' handgun purchases to one gun a month.<sup>[36]</sup> The Hudson County Superior Court struck down the ordinance on the grounds that it violated the New Jersey Constitution's Equal Protection clause, and a state statute prohibiting towns and municipalities from enacting firearms legislation.<sup>[36]</sup> On September 29, 2008, the New Jersey Superior Court Appellate Division denied ACORN's appeal of the Hudson County Superior Court's decision striking down Jersey City's ordinance.<sup>[37]</sup>

Home Defender Program

In 2009, ACORN advocated allowing homeowners delinquent in their mortgage payments to remain in their homes pending a government solution to the housing foreclosure crisis. ACORN introduced a program called the Home Defender Program, intended to mobilize people to congregate at homes faced with foreclosure to "defend a family's right to stay in their homes."<sup>[38][39]</sup>

Legal issues

During the 2008 election season, ACORN gathered over 1.3 million voter registration forms in 21 states. Project Vote estimated that 400,000 registrations collected by ACORN were ultimately rejected, the vast majority for being duplicate registrations submitted by citizens. Project Vote estimated that only a few percent of registrations were fraudulent, based on past years and samples from some drives in 2008.<sup>[40]</sup> Project Vote estimated that 450,000 of the registrations collected by ACORN represented first-time voters, while the remainder were address changes submitted by citizens updating their addresses.<sup>[40]</sup>

ACORN has fired employees for fraudulent registration practices and turned them over to authorities.<sup>[41][42][43][44][45][46]</sup> Of 26,513 registrations submitted by ACORN over a nine-month period in San Diego County, California, 4,655 were initially flagged, but 2,806 of those were later validated. County officials said this resulted in a 7% error rate by ACORN, compared to usually less than 5% for voter drives by other organizations.<sup>[47]</sup>

In a 2007 case in Washington state, in which seven temporary employees of ACORN were charged with submitting fraudulent voter registrations, ACORN agreed to pay King County $25,000 for its investigative costs and acknowledged that the national organization could be subject to criminal prosecution if fraud occurred.<sup>[42][48][49][50][51]</sup> In May 2009, six ACORN employees in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, pleaded guilty to charges of a combined total of 51 counts of forgery and other violations while registering voters during the 2008 election cycle.<sup>[52]</sup>

In plea deals in a 2009 Las Vegas case, former ACORN field director Amy Busefink and ACORN official Christopher Edwards pleaded guilty to "conspiracy to commit the crime of compensation for registration of voters," in connection with a quota system for paid registration staff.<sup>[53]</sup> Edwards was sentenced to a year's probation and agreed to testify for prosecutors in charges against ACORN and against Busefink. Busefink appealed her case to the Nevada Supreme Court, challenging the constitutionality of the statute.<sup>[54][55]</sup> In April 2011, ACORN entered a guilty plea to one count of felony compensation for registration of voters, for which they were fined $5000,<sup>[56]</sup> but did not concede that the law was constitutional.<sup>[55]</sup>

ACORN International

ACORN International was created in 2004 as an offshoot of ACORN to aid the spread of ACORN's model to other countries,<sup>[1]</sup> including Argentina, Canada, Mexico, and Peru.<sup>[6]</sup> The first ACORN branch in the UK opened in Bristol in 2014 by three people, two of whom were graduates of the Community Organisers programme.<sup>[7]</sup>

Other groups are affiliated with ACORN: for example, Living Rent in Scotland<sup>[8]</sup> and Alliance Citoyenne in France.<sup>[9]</sup>

Center for Popular Democracy

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Center for Popular Democracy (CPD) is an American advocacy group that promotes progressive politics.<sup>[3][4][5]</sup> CPD is a federation of groups that includes some of the old chapters of ACORN.<sup>[6]</sup> The group's stated goal is to "envision and win an innovative pro-worker, pro-immigrant, racial and economic justice agenda."<sup>[7]</sup> The organization is allied with teachers' unions and has published studies criticizing charter schools.<sup>[8][9]</sup>

Campaigns and actions

The organization gained national prominence during the protests over Brett Kavanaugh's nomination to the United States Supreme Court. One of the organization's co-executive directors, Ana Maria Archila, confronted U.S. Senator Jeff Flake over his support for the judge<sup>[10][11]</sup> and other activists had questions for U.S. Senator Rand Paul.<sup>[12]</sup>

Private prisons

CPD has run a years-long campaign against private prisons, and prison companies have warned investors that activist groups are a threat to their future profitability.<sup>[13]</sup> This notice to investors came after lenders like JP Morgan Chase bowed to pressure from CPD and other groups and agreed to stop doing business with prison companies.<sup>[14]</sup>

Local Progress

Local Progress is a project of CPD, and works to organize grassroots groups on the outside and progressive politicians on the inside to advance an inside/outside strategy for change. It was founded in 2012 to connect progressive leaders in different cities so they can learn from each other's experiences, share policy ideas and model legislation.<sup>[15]</sup> It also regularly brings local officials together so they can learn from each other in person and share ideas.<sup>[16][17]</sup> Local Progress board members include Brad Lander, Helen Gym, Gregorio Casar, Phillipe Cunningham, Tefere Gebre, Lorena González, and other local officials and national progressive leaders.<sup>[18]</sup>

OPERATING POLICY

Number: CC-POL-06

TITLE: COUNCILMEMBER TRAVEL

PURPOSE:

Councilmembers are encouraged to be actively involved in city, county, state, regional and national organizations that affect Tukwila, its residents, and its businesses. Education, lobbying, professional responsibilities, (e.g. policy boards, offices, and committees), public relations, and relationship-building with other agencies are examples of activities for which travel funds can be used. While the entire Council approves the travel budget, it is up to individual Councilmembers to decide how best to use their own travel allotment.

REFERENCES:

N/A

STATEMENT OF POLICY AND/OR PROCEDURES:

I. Travel Budgets

- A. Budgets for Council travel will be set during the biennial budget process and adjusted during the second year, if necessary.
- B. Review of the preceding year's travel may serve as a guide in allocating travel for the following year.
- C. The Council will consider the City's financial situation in setting its annual travel budget.

II. Travel Decisions

- A. Beginning each year, after funds for local meetings, the Council retreat, and meals are subtracted, each Councilmember will be allotted an equal share of the remaining Council travel budget for use during the remainder of the year. That amount shall be communicated to all Councilmembers as soon as available.
- B. Any Councilmember's travel funds which are not planned to be used in that year may be returned to the shared travel fund for use by other Councilmembers.
- C. Upon returning from a class or conference, Councilmembers will prepare an oral or written report for the Council. If more than one Councilmember attends, a consolidated report may be presented.
- D. Sister City related travel is not budgeted separately and will be funded from the individual Councilmember's travel allocation.
- E. The entire Council, by majority, will make the final decision on use of funds if issues arise.

III. Travel Expenses

- A. The City will pay for airfare, ground transportation, registration, hotel, and meals when a Councilmember is on official travel.
- B. The City will not assume costs for a spouse, partner or guest.
- C. A daily record of expenses for lodging, meals, transportation, and incidental expenses should be maintained, with receipts attached to the record. An itemized bill should be kept for meals. The record and receipts will be submitted to the Finance Department and processed in accordance with current procedures.

IV. Travel Arrangements

- A. City Council travel will be coordinated through the Council Analyst, who will monitor the travel budget as well as make travel arrangements if desired by the Councilmember.
- B. Intention for out-of-state travel should be communicated to the Council President.
- C. Significant effort will be made to secure the best value for airfare and lodgings.

V. Miscellaneous

- A. When a City vehicle is available, it may be reserved by Councilmembers for appropriate business-related travel.
- B. If a Councilmember uses his or her personal vehicle for City-related travel, mileage will be reimbursed according to IRS rules.

FW: Financial Aid for 2018 Local Progress convening

Hi Tom, please see message below for the hotel form to fill out. Then, please let me know your preferred flight dates/times.

Thanks,

Subject: Financial Aid for 2018 Local Progress convening

Dear Local Progress members,

We're so excited to welcome you to Minneapolis, MN this summer for the Local Progress 2018 convening.

If you are receiving this email, then you've requested financial assistance and been granted our standard aid package. Please read on for more information.

Room booking: We have a room block at the Hilton Minneapolis located at 1001 Marquette Avenue, Minneapolis, MN 55403 where the convening will be held. The rate is $179 + taxes and fees per night. Local Progress will reserve your hotel room as part of our room block.

Please fill out this hotel form and send us a signed W9 form by June 1, 2018.

Standard Aid:

Hotel:

- We will cover up to 3 nights hotel @ double occupancy (4 nights if you are coming in for Thursday programming - the Women's Caucus Training, the city site visits, or the Women's Caucus Reception).
- If you would like to upgrade to a single, you can do so and pay the difference of approximately $100/night.

Travel:

- We will reimburse $200 for flights or mileage costs. Please fill out and return a W9 and forward any airline receipts to aschwartz@populardemocracy.org
- We cannot reimburse expenses made out of campaign or political committees.

Discretionary Aid: We understand that flight costs will range significantly for Local Progress members in different jurisdictions, and also that Local Progress members have different levels of ability to have travel expenses covered by their offices. It is our goal to be able to have a financial aid package that accommodates for these differences. Members who need additional aid can apply for it, specifying the amount of additional travel aid they want when they fill out this form.

Staff: Due to great interest for this year's convening, we regretfully do not have the ability to offer financial aid for travel and hotel for members' staff. Staff who want to attend the convening should contact Ari Schwartz.

Agenda: We have a preliminary agenda which you can find here. We will update it with more content in the coming weeks.

Please contact us if you have any questions and we look forward to seeing you in Minneapolis!

Best

Ari

Receipt Reminder

Just a reminder to please save all receipts for purchases made on your pCards this week—even small amounts like a $3 coffee purchase. Remember to save the itemized receipt showing items purchased, not the credit card signature slip. The auditor has caught us on that one in the past.

Thanks and hope your conference is great!
