Complaint Description
Glen Morgan reported via the portal (Wed, 29 Dec 2021 at 3:41 PM) To whom it may concern, It has come to my attention that Tukwila City Councilmember Zak Idan has violated Washington State’s campaign finance laws, as have many of his fellow council members. The violations are detailed as follows: Attempt to conceal reportable corporate compensation paid to him by various special interests and lobbying organizations (Violation of RCW 42.17A.710, 42.52.110, and including violations of RCW 42.17A.555 and RCW 42.17A.550) Please note, for ease of PDC staff review of this complaint, I have assigned exhibit numbers to various exhibits which provide the evidence behind these violations. I have followed a similar policy with other similar complaints, and it is my belief this helps PDC staff follow the violations and understand them more effectively. Tukwila Councilmember Idan violated RCW 42.17A.710 (Exhibit-005.pdf) regarding his Statement of Financial Affairs (F1) covering 2018 (Exhibit-035.pdf). Namely, he failed to report compensation paid to him by the WaterNow Alliance (WNA) and the Center for Popular Democracy (CPD) to attend their events in 2018. However, I have an even larger concern related to the CPD event, which was overtly political and a violation of RCW 42.17A.550/555 (Exhibit-022.pdf and Exhibit-024.pdf) and also RCW 42.52.110 (Exhibit-023.pdf) which prohibits compensation for influencing the performance of official duties. Note, Local Progress (LP) is a "project" of the CPD, which was connected with ACORN (Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now)—a currently defunct and disgraced organization, which had a very public disgrace by conviction and fines related to Voter Fraud, and eventually dissolved because of an undercover "sting" operation of videos related to human trafficking and underage prostitution. (See Exhibit-050.pdf and Exhibit-043.pdf showing the connections between CPD, ACORN, and voter fraud.) These trips are among many concealed from the public in collusion with other Tukwila Councilmembers, who were also involved in similar inappropriate travel and compensation and who ALL had to "look the other way" to protect themselves. They concealed this compensation from the public by not including it on their F1s, and by deliberately failing to

follow their own Travel Policy (Exhibit-101.pdf), which requires oral or written reports of such travel. No written or oral reports were ever made, effectively making this travel invisible to the public, and illegal under their own rules. Meanwhile, this collusion also involved a Tukwila staff member, who aided them in concealing their actions from the public by using private emails and directing payments to herself, instead of to the Finance Department, as required by the Tukwila Travel Policy. (Exhibit-101.pdf) See Exhibit-000.pdf for an overview, placing this complaint in context with other violations, and Exhibit-020.pdf for additional evidence of collusion to conceal third-party compensated travel. These violations are detailed below, with attached exhibits.

From March 27th to 29th, 2018, only three months into his first term in office, Tukwila Councilmember Zak Idan attended the WNA conference in Salt Lake City, UT. (Exhibit-041.pdf) He received reimbursement compensation from the WNA for lodging and transportation, in addition to gifts in the form of food, which he never reported on his F1 covering the year 2018. (Exhibit-035.pdf)

Legislative Analyst Laurel Humphrey made travel arrangements for Councilmember Idan to attend the conference. In an email to Laurel Humphrey, Lindsay Rogers, of the WNA, outlined the gratuities available to attendees, including one night hotel accommodation, $250 reimbursement for travel, and reception and dinner at Squatter's Brewery, plus three additional meals. (Exhibit-191.pdf)

When inquiring about Idan's travel arrangements, Lindsay Rogers (WNA) explained that Idan was welcome to sign up as a member of Water Now and receive "travel funding" if he is an elected official with voting power over a water utility. (Exhibit-195.pdf) It should also be noted that Councilmember Idan is a Capital Project Manager for King County Department of Natural Resources and Parks—Wastewater Treatment Division (DNPR/WTD) (Exhibit-320.pdf), so he has multiple reasons to be interested in water utilities. However Idan couldn't claim that attendance at this conference was "work related" or King County should have paid his way instead of the City of Tukwila. Most King County employees are not elected officials and wouldn't have qualified for "travel funding" at the WNA event. Nevertheless, how did Idan's job influence his decision to attend this event? Did the City of Tukwila taxpayers merely pay for Councilmember Idan to have job-related training in Salt Lake City, UT?

It should also be noted that Councilmember Zak Idan listed "5600 S 152Nd Apt 22 Duwamish, WA 98188" as his address on the hotel folio. (Exhibit-202.pdf) There is no city named "Duwamish" in Washington state, so this is a false address. As a sitting City Council member Zak Idan MUST live in Tukwila, not some false or nonexistent City of Duwamish Washington. Why would he list a false address?

On Tuesday April 10th 2018 Tukwila Legislative Analyst Laurel Humphrey sent an email (Exhibit-196.pdf) to Lindsey Rogers (ler@waternow.org) with attached file Idan, Zak, 4-10-18, Summit Reimbursement.xlsx (Exhibit-200.pdf) requesting that the $250 Transportation reimbursement should be sent to City of Tukwila c/o Laurel Humphrey instead of the finance department. This is a violation of the Tukwila Travel

Policy (Exhibit-101.pdf) This same Travel Policy also requires Councilmembers to prepare an "oral or written report" upon returning from a class or conference. This report never happened, which is a further violation of the City Council Travel Policy. Most importantly, the gift compensation from the WNA was never included on Zak Idan's F-1 covering the year 2018. (Exhibit-035.pdf)

The annual Local Progress (LP) convention was held in Minneapolis, MN in July 2018 with three Tukwila City Councilmembers attending—Councilmember Zak Idan, Councilmember De'Sean Quinn, and Councilmember Tom McLeod. (Exhibit-058.pdf) By now it's clear that this event was known in advance that it was for overtly political purposes, which is inappropriate for public expenditure. and a violation of RCW 42.17A.550/555 (Exhibit-022.pdf and Exhibit-024.pdf). This fact was confirmed in Councilmember Tom McLeod's own words (Exhibit-098.pdf) in his response to my PDC complaint against him (Exhibit-013.pdf), and also my subsequent rebuttal to his response (Exhibit-097.pdf) This makes each expenditure related to this travel—using public funds—a separate and additional violation of State Law. However, even before departing for this event, the actions of Councilmember Idan leave some additional unanswered questions. On July 11, 2018 at 3:50 PM, Idan took a Lyft ride to the airport, and charged the $25.73 ride to the City of Tukwila. (Exhibit-274.pdf) The Lyft confirmation message was sent to Idan's private email account (zak.idan10@gmail.com) which he then forwarded to Tukwila Legislative Analyst Laurel Humphrey. The email shows that Councilmember Idan used his Tukwila PCard (Visa *7486) and this charge is verified on the Tukwila 2018 General Ledger Expenditure Detail (Exhibit-075.pdf). Why would he use his private email address to book a Lyft ride, but charge it to his City of Tukwila PCard? Using private emails is NOT transparent—it is difficult to follow via Public Disclosure Requests (PDRs)—yet he'd have to pay for it himself if he used his own credit card. Additionally, the pickup location is also very confusing. The Lyft receipt mentioned above shows that Idan was picked up at an address in Seattle, not Tukwila. Upon checking the voter records for July 2018, the only person shown registered at that address on that date was a 31 year old female (Candice). Why did Councilmember Zak Idan catch a Lyft ride, at tax-payer expense, from a private residence in Seattle?

Earlier, on Thursday June 21, 2018 at 9:03 AM, Tarsi Dunlop, Local Progress Policy and Program Manager for the CPD, sent an email message to Tukwila City Councilmember Zak Idan (Exhibit-234.pdf) confirming that he was registered for the annual conference, but also a "Minneapolis City Tour" the day before the conference. So Councilmember Idan arrived a day earlier—Wednesday, July 11, 2018. The same email shows that the "Minneapolis City Tour" would depart at 2 PM from the Hotel. The address of the Hilton Minneapolis is 1001 Marquette Ave South, Minneapolis, MN 55403. Unfortunately, at 2 PM on July 12th, Councilmember Idan was over ten miles away from the Hilton Minneapolis because he caught another Lyft ride to 3500 Minnesota Drive, Edina, MN. (Exhibit-275.pdf) Again, Idan used his private email account, and again, he paid for it using the City of Tukwila PCard. This time the ride cost the City of Tukwila tax-payers $15.44, which is also confirmed on the Tukwila 2018 General Ledger Expenditure Detail (Exhibit-075.pdf).

Interestingly, 3500 Minnesota Drive does not appear to be a valid address in Edina, MN. Google Maps places that location at the middle of an intersection. There's a nearby hotel (Residence Inn), an office park (Centennial Lakes Office Park). and private condominiums (Edinburgh Condominiums). The closest valid address appears to be the Ciao Bella Italian restaurant at 3501 Minnesota Drive. Evidently Idan walked to one of these establishments after being dropped-off by the Lyft driver.

Why did the City of Tukwila need to pay the additional food and hotel costs for Councilmember Idan to arrive a day early, if he wasn't going to attend the City Tour? Why did the City of Tukwila pay for a Lyft ride for Idan to Edina, MN? What did Councilmember Idan do at 3500 Minnesota Drive, Edina, MN? Looking carefully at all the Public Disclosure Request (PDR) records sent to me by the City of Tukwila I can't find any other charges for transportation that day, so how did Councilmember Idan get back to the hotel? If he thought he was engaged in legitimate City business, then why did the city only pay one-way transportation to Edina, MN, but not back again? Did he meet someone there, who drove him back to the hotel?

Again referring to the email from Tarsi Dunlop (Exhibit-234.pdf), it shows that CPD was willing to pay the entire room rate of $179, but only if Councilmember Idan had chosen to share a "double" room with another conference attendee. There were three City Councilmembers from Tukwila attending that conference, so sharing was possible, yet Idan chose to have a "single" room instead. Meaning someone else would need to "pay the 50% difference." Why did Idan want a "single" room?

Regarding Tukwila Councilmember Zak Idan's stay at the Hilton Minneapolis hotel, there's several items to note on the hotel folio for "Idan, Zak" (Exhibit-262.pdf). Again, this is a public record obtained from the City of Tukwila via PDR. The folio shows:

Idan arrived 7/11/2018 at 11:59 PM and departed 7/15/2018 at 9:02 AM. So he stayed 4 nights.

There were 2 adults staying in the room and the room rate was $179.

Tukwila was billed for 4 nights at $89.50 each night, plus taxes and fees.

Idan also used Room Service for a meal on July 12th—an additional $44.99 cost to Tukwila. (See also Exhibit-076.pdf)

Who was that 2nd adult who stayed with Councilmember Idan? The normal room rate is $179/night, and the folio shows 4 nights at $89.50 (plus taxes). So CPD indeed covered half, but Idan charged the other half (plus room service) to his City of Tukwila PCard. (Exhibit-262.pdf) for a total of $450.07. CPD was willing to pay the full room rate if another conference attendee shared the room, so that 2nd adult couldn't have been an attendee. He or she was definitely not another Tukwila Councilmember, which might have made sense, but that didn't happen. Again, who was that 2nd adult? The citizens of Tukwila should not have paid over $450 for someone else to stay in that hotel room with Idan for 4 nights. Who did the citizens pay for? Why didn't Idan simply pay for that person himself?

RCW 42.17A.710 (Exhibit-005.pdf) states that all elected officials who are compensated with "food and beverage in excess of fifty dollars" are required to report this compensation on the annual F1. The PDC's own guidance web page (Exhibit-073.pdf page 2) clarifies that even if the official paid for some of his own food, and only consumed a portion of what was provided, they still have to "Report The Full Value" of the food and beverages that were provided. Many of the meals at the event were provided to attendees by CPD; therefore, the $50 threshold was far exceeded and all such food and beverages should have been reported. Additionally, Councilmember Zak Idan also submitted many other receipts to the City of Tukwila for additional food and beverages, both inside the hotel and at outside establishments. (For example, please see Exhibit-276.pdf page 6.) So who ate the $44.99 room service food on the night of July 12th? Did Zak Idan himself eat that meal, or was it the 2nd adult staying in the room with him? Whose food did Tukwila pay for?

Through a targeted PDR from the City of Tukwila I received confirmation that CPD paid the City of Tukwila $600 total. (Exhibit-298.pdf) This included three entries of "LP National Convening Travel Reimbursement" presumably as financial aid of $200 each for three Tukwila Councilmembers attending that event--De'Sean Quinn, Zak Idan, and Tom McLeod. None of these Councilmembers reported this compensation on their F1s covering 2018, nor did any of them "prepare oral or written reports" as required by the Tukwila Travel Policy (Exhibit-101.pdf).

In summary as a minimum, Councilmember Zak Idan failed to report the following items on his F1 covering 2018 (Exhibit-035.pdf):

1. Gifts in the form of food and beverage--Unknown dollar value
2. Gift of reimbursed transportation expenses—$250 WNA / $200 CPD
3. Gift of lodging expenses—$130 - $135 WNA / $450.07 CPD
4. Any other gifts related to these travel events, not explicitly identified above.

And lest there's any doubt about whether Tukwila Councilmember Zak Idan KNEW it was wrong to accept such gifts, and hide them from the public, the CPD themselves included the following legal notice regarding ethics and gifts, sent directly to Idan via email, "Members should ensure that their attendance at the conference and receipt of financial aid is permissible under local regulations pertaining to ethics and gifts..." (Exhibit-234.pdf) Thus, Zak Idan had no excuse for NOT reporting these gifts to the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC).

I request the PDC to inform Tukwila City Councilmember Zac Idan that he MUST revise his 2018 F1 to include all such gifts related to these events.

Here's an additional over-arching question: Why would an organization like the Center for Popular Democracy (CPD) spend all this money to bring elected officials to a political conference? What's in it for them? It's a quid pro quo. They are buying influence. In addition to all the political messaging these politicians learn at Local Progress events, the CPD wants to have their "foot in the door" to influence local government policies later. And they're willing to pay for it. They essentially "bribe" local elected officials—providing them with lavish vacations—in exchange for influencing their local policies. This is the VERY REASON the Public Disclosure Commission was created—the public has a right to know who is paying money and giving gifts to elected officials. Yet this further explains why the Tukwila City Council worked so hard to hide this from the public. Bribes can't be cured by disclosing the amount of the bribe. If you rob a bank, reporting it to the police yourself doesn't make it go away. Whether or not they report the amount on their F1s, selling influence is still illegal, even in Washington State, and even at the City of Tukwila. These actions are in violation of RCW 42.52.110 (Exhibit-023.pdf) in addition to RCW 42.17A.710 (Exhibit-005.pdf). Here's several examples of attempts to influence local government legislation:

Exhibit-270.pdf—Email from Ari Schwartz (Campaigns Organizer at LP) to "undisclosed-recipients" about attendance at the the 2018 Minneapolis Convening, and encouraging state and local elected officials to sign a letter calling to "Abolish ICE!"

Exhibit-278.pdf—Email from Tarsi Dunlop (LP/CPD) to Verna Seal, preparing a press release to President Trump's First State of the Union Address (before he even gave it) helping local governments in "crafting your own release"--Subject of email "DRAFT SOTU Response (DO NOT DISTRIBUTE)"--Now a public record.

Exhibit-279.pdf—Email from Silvia Fabela (LP) BCC to De'Sean Quinn about a local "police reform toolkit" Laying the groundwork for "Defunding the Police" nearly 2 years before it became a national protest slogan.

Exhibit-282.pdf—Email from Dominic Frongillo (LP) to Thomas McLeod, offering to "prepare a customized press release" for Tukwila regarding National Climate Justice elected leaders sign-on project.

Exhibit-284.pdf—Email thread (from May 30th 2018 to June 11th 2018) between Tukwila Councilmember Zak Idan and Ari Schwartz. Confirms the quid-pro-quo between financial aid for conference attendance and buying political influence.

Exhibit-289.pdf—Email from Silvia Fabela to De'Sean Quinn about Congressional Progressive Caucus (CPC) and abolishing ICE.

Exhibit-294.pdf—Email from Ari Schwartz (CPD) to Tukwila Councilmember Idan, attempting to influence Tukwila legislation to "disentangle municipal functions from immigration enforcement"

Please note, as I have done in the past, I have labeled these exhibits using their file names. Some of these files are in common with my other recent Tukwila complaints, and files with the same names are identical with the last time. Some of these exhibits below are new with this writing. The following is a complete list of these exhibits for staff reference and ease of tracking.

Glen Morgan

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

The public has a right to know if outside corporate special interests are attempting to conceal their influence of elected officials in an effort to influence local public policy. The public has a right to know if those politicians are attempting to conceal the truth from the public.

Overview Statement

I've uncovered a major scam affecting cities all across the United States. Outside "progressive" organizations are buying influence in local governments by providing partial compensation for elected officials to attend covert and even overt political events. Because this is partial compensation, the local governments are picking up the tab for the remainder of these travel expenses, camouflaged as official city travel. While not naming political parties, they are nevertheless promoting political policies at public expense, and covering it up to prevent the public from becoming aware. The cover-ups themselves often violate open records laws, by such means as communicating through secret or private email accounts, instead of using accounts provided by the public agency. This effectively prevents the public from obtaining proof of wrongdoing via Public Records Requests. Occasionally, they use public email accounts, which has provided me with the evidence I have thus far, but also the evidence revealing their use of secret emails in the process. Keeping these violations hidden is only possible by ignoring traditional safeguards against corruption and abuse, such as oral or written reports of such travel, with complicity by other elected officials and city employees, who fail to enforce their own laws and simply look the other way. In truth, many of them are also in on the scam too.

While I don't have evidence of actual money changing hands, that could be included too. Nevertheless, bribery really isn't needed, because this travel strokes the ego of these elected officials -- making them feel important while traveling at public expense, and living an elite lifestyle they couldn't afford had they not been elected. Staying at expensive hotels and resorts and eating at expensive restaurants, these are virtually all-expense-paid vacations. It's merely bribery by another name, leveraged with tax dollars.

Meanwhile, the progressive organizations who organize travel events constantly lobby the now compromised officials to support progressive policies; such as, defunding the police, combating anthropogenic climate change, and supporting the homeless industrial complex. They even write proposed legislation and draft press releases. So instead of elected officials taking direction from their own constituents, they are literally taking direction from outside organizations who provide them with paid vacations and entertainment. Again, bribery by another name.

This scam is clear to see in the City of Tukwila. I've been following politics for many years and when I find particular agencies are lacking transparency it usually means they have something to hide. So then I dig deeper.

In Tukwila I first became aware of Councilmember De'Sean Quinn because of his many campaign finance violations. So I began digging deeper through many Public Records Requests. Initially I focused exclusively on Quinn, but over time I realized the secrecy and lack of transparency was much more widespread, also involving additional Tukwila City Councilmembers and some city staff too. I found the City Council was holding lavish City Council Retreats in remote areas, like expensive hotels and resorts, where the public could not easily attend. So I began attending some of these retreats myself and video-taping the proceedings. At every retreat I was the only member of the public attending, and it became clear their goal was to exclude the public, while enjoying a lavish "vacation" at their expense. I also found the minutes of these retreats were often vague, not fully documenting what had transpired. This was clearly a culture of concealing things from the public--namely the people who were footing the bill. So I dug even deeper and uncovered the major scam described above.

Currently, I'm filing a series of PDC Complaints and Ethics violations to show through exhibits how all these jig-saw puzzle pieces fit together in Tukwila. The assembled picture will be an ugly display of political corruption.

RCW 42.17A.710

Statement of financial affairs—Contents.

(1) The statement of financial affairs required by RCW 42.17A.700 shall disclose the following information for the reporting individual and each member of the reporting individual's immediate family:

(a) Occupation, name of employer, and business address;

(b) Each bank account, savings account, and insurance policy in which a direct financial interest was held that exceeds *twenty thousand dollars at any time during the reporting period; each other item of intangible personal property in which a direct financial interest was held that exceeds *two thousand dollars during the reporting period; the name, address, and nature of the entity; and the nature and highest value of each direct financial interest during the reporting period;

(c) The name and address of each creditor to whom the value of *two thousand dollars or more was owed; the original amount of each debt to each creditor; the amount of each debt owed to each creditor as of the date of filing; the terms of repayment of each debt; and the security given, if any, for each such debt. Debts arising from a "retail installment transaction" as defined in chapter 63.14 RCW (retail installment sales act) need not be reported;

(d) Every public or private office, directorship, and position held as trustee; except that an elected official or executive state officer need not report the elected official's or executive state officer's service on a governmental board, commission, association, or functional equivalent, when such service is part of the elected official's or executive state officer's official duties;

(e) All persons for whom any legislation, rule, rate, or standard has been prepared, promoted, or opposed for current or deferred compensation. For the purposes of this subsection, "compensation" does not include payments made to the person reporting by the governmental entity for which the person serves as an elected official or state executive officer or professional staff member for the person's service in office; the description of such actual or proposed legislation, rules, rates, or standards; and the amount of current or deferred compensation paid or promised to be paid;

(f) The name and address of each governmental entity, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, association, union, or other business or commercial entity from whom compensation has been received in any form of a total value of *two thousand dollars or more; the value of the compensation; and the consideration given or performed in exchange for the compensation;

(g) The name of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, union, or other entity in which is held any office, directorship, or any general partnership interest, or an ownership interest of ten percent or more; the name or title of that office, directorship, or partnership; the nature of ownership interest; and: (i) With respect to a governmental unit in which the official seeks or holds any office or position, if the entity has received compensation in any form during the preceding twelve months from the governmental unit, the value of the compensation and the consideration given or performed in exchange for the compensation; and (ii) the name of each governmental unit, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, association, union, or other business or commercial entity from which the entity has received compensation in any form in the amount of *ten thousand dollars or more during the preceding twelve months and the consideration given or performed in exchange for the compensation. As used in (g)(ii) of this subsection, "compensation" does not include payment for water and other utility services at rates approved by the Washington state utilities and transportation commission or the legislative authority of the public entity providing the service. With respect to any bank or commercial lending institution in which is held any office, directorship, partnership interest, or ownership interest, it shall only be necessary to report either the name, address, and occupation of every director and officer of the bank or commercial lending institution and the average monthly balance of each account held during the preceding twelve months by the bank or commercial lending institution from the governmental entity for which the individual is an official or candidate or professional staff member, or all interest paid by a borrower on loans from and all interest paid to a depositor by the bank or commercial lending institution if the interest exceeds *two thousand four hundred dollars;

(h) A list, including legal or other sufficient descriptions as prescribed by the commission, of all real property in the state of Washington, the assessed valuation of which exceeds *ten thousand dollars in which any direct financial interest was acquired during the preceding calendar year, and a statement of the amount and nature of the financial interest and of the consideration given in exchange for that interest;

(i) A list, including legal or other sufficient descriptions as prescribed by the commission, of all real property in the state of Washington, the assessed valuation of which exceeds *ten thousand dollars in which any direct financial interest was divested during the preceding calendar year, and a statement of the amount and nature of the consideration received in exchange for that interest, and the name and address of the person furnishing the consideration;

(j) A list, including legal or other sufficient descriptions as prescribed by the commission, of all real property in the state of Washington, the assessed valuation of which exceeds *ten thousand dollars in which a direct financial interest was held. If a description of the property has been included in a report previously filed, the property may be listed, for purposes of this subsection (1)(j), by reference to the previously filed report;

(k) A list, including legal or other sufficient descriptions as prescribed by the commission, of all real property in the state of Washington, the assessed valuation of which exceeds *twenty thousand dollars, in which a corporation, partnership, firm, enterprise, or other entity had a direct financial interest, in which corporation, partnership, firm, or enterprise a ten percent or greater ownership interest was held;

(l) A list of each occasion, specifying date, donor, and amount, at which food and beverage in excess of fifty dollars was accepted under RCW 42.52.150(5);

(m) A list of each occasion, specifying date, donor, and amount, at which items specified in RCW 42.52.010(9) (d) and (f) were accepted; and

Tom McLeod—PDC Complaint

To whom it may concern,

It has come to my attention that Tukwila City Councilmember Tom McLeod has violated Washington State's campaign finance laws (RCW 42.17A). The specifics are as follows:

- 1) Tukwila City Councilmember Tom McLeod has violated RCW 42.17A.710 (Exhibit-005.pdf) (and also a violation of WAC 390-24-203 (2)) regarding his Statement of Financial Affairs (F1) covering 2018 (Exhibit-031.pdf). Namely, he failed to report compensation paid to him by the Center for Popular Democracy (CPD) to attend their Local Progress (LP) political event in July 2018 in Minneapolis, MN. (Note: LP is a "project" of CPD. Exhibit-050.pdf) This is only one political trip among many concealed from the public in collusion with other Tukwila Councilmembers, who were also involved in similar inappropriate travel and compensation (and it appears to also be a violation of RCW 42.17A.550/555). They concealed this compensation from the public by not including it on their F1s, and by deliberately failing to follow their own Travel Policy (Exhibit-101.pdf), which requires oral or written reports of such travel. No written or oral reports were ever made, making this travel invisible to the public. Meanwhile, This collusion also involved a Tukwila staff member, who aided them in concealing their actions from the public by using private emails and directing payments to herself, instead of to the Finance Department, as required by the Tukwila Travel Policy. (Exhibit-101.pdf) See Exhibit-000.pdf for an overview, placing this complaint in context with other violations, and Exhibit-020.pdf for additional evidence of collusion to conceal third-party compensated travel. These violations are detailed below, with attached exhibits:

In July 2018, Tukwila Councilmember Tom McLeod attended the annual LP convention in Minneapolis, MN. (Exhibit-236.pdf) The following sequence of exhibits is important to understand what actually occurred, and what McLeod failed to report to the PDC on his F1 covering 2018. (Exhibit-031.pdf)

On Friday May 18, 2018 Ari Swartz (CPD) sent an email message about "Financial Aid" for their upcoming conference in July 2018. Tukwila Legislative Analyst Laurel Humphrey forwarded that message to Tom McLeod later that day. (Exhibit-241.pdf) In that message Ari Swartz said, "We will cover up to 3 nights hotel @ double occupancy... If you would like to upgrade to a single, you can do so and pay the difference of approximately $100/night" So CPD was prepared to pay the entire cost of the hotel, if McLeod shared a room with another attendee of the conference. Swartz also said that CPD would "reimburse $200 for flights or mileage costs."

On June 21, 2018 Tarsi Dunlop (CPD) sent an email message confirming McLeod's "hotel & financial aid" for the conference. (Exhibit-286.pdf) This confirmation stated, "During our convening, we will provide food and beverages to members..." It also showed that McLeod had chosen to have a "single" room instead of double occupancy, which meant someone would need to pay for the other half--approximately $100/night. And Tarsi Dunlop also confirmed the room was booked for Thursday, Friday, Saturday (July 12, 13 and 14). So the amount to be paid by CPD on McLeod's behalf should have also been approximately $100/night, or $300.

On July 9, 2018 Legislative Analyst Laurel Humphrey reminded McLeod and two other Councilmembers about saving receipts because, "The auditor has caught us on that one in the past." (Exhibit-268.pdf)

On May 30, 2018 McLeod sent an email message to Laurel Humphrey stating, "Regarding my flight to Local Progress in Minneapolis, I would like to leave the morning of Thursday, July 12, and return as late as possible on Sunday evening (arrive 11pm or midnight). If there are other Councilmembers leaving Thursday, July 12, maybe we can fly together." (Exhibit-265.pdf)

Evidently, they didn't fly together, because on Thursday July 12th, McLeod caught a Supershuttle to the Hilton Minneapolis (Exhibit-062.pdf) Note: Supershuttle "Boarding Pass" says Passengers: 1. The Supershuttle cost was $16.

The round-trip Delta flight for McLeod was $504.40. (Exhibit-258.pdf) Including the $16 Super Shuttle, this means CPD would pay $200 of the transportation cost, leaving the City of Tukwila to pay the remaining $320.

Unfortunately, that's not exactly what happened. There's several confusing items to note on the Hilton Minneapolis hotel folio for "McLeod, Thomas." (Exhibit-061.pdf) This is a public record obtained from the City of Tukwila via Public Disclosure Request (PDR). The folio shows:

1. That McLeod arrived 7/12/2018 at 2:47 PM and departed 7/14/2018 at 11:20 AM. So he didn't stay 3 nights, but only 2.
2. That there were 2 adults staying in the room and the room rate is $179.
3. That McLeod's home address is listed as 1730 M Street NW, Washington DC. (That's the address of the Abigail Night Club--more than 2,700 miles from Tukwila. Exhibit-063.pdf)

Who was that 2nd adult on the nights of July 12th and July 13th? The normal room rate is $179/night, and the folio shows 2 nights at $89.5 (plus taxes) for a total of $202.54. So CPD indeed covered half, but McLeod charged the other half--$202.54--to his City of Tukwila P-Card. (Exhibit-267.pdf) CPD was willing to pay the full room rate if another conference attendee shared the room, so that 2nd adult couldn't have been a attendee. Again, who was that 2nd adult? I thought perhaps his wife flew to Minneapolis and shared the room, but then I discovered that McLeod has already been divorced. .And besides, the Tukwila Travel Policy says, "The City will not assume costs for a spouse, partner or guest." So the citizens of Tukwila should not have paid over $200 for someone else to stay in that hotel room with McLeod for 2 nights. Who did the citizens pay for? Why didn't McLeod simply pay for that person himself?

From all the evidence it appears that Councilmember Tom McLeod had other plans for this trip to Minneapolis than simply attending this conference. He didn't stay at the hotel the night of the 14th, but he told Laurel Humphrey that he wanted to catch a flight "as late in the day as possible" on Sunday the 15th. (Exhibit-265.pdf) This was planned in advance. Where did he stay the night of the 14th? What was he doing during the day on the 15th? And again, who stayed with him at the hotel on the nights of July 12th and July 13th? Why did he use a false address on the hotel folio? Why did he keep the trip secret by not reporting the gift compensation on his F1? And upon returning, why didn't he give a "written or oral" trip report to the Tukwila City Council as required by their own Travel Policy? McLeod needs to explain these actions to someone. And the other Tukwila Councilmembers need to explain why they "looked the other way" and never challenged him.

Here's another important point regarding the hotel folio. (Exhibit-061.pdf) Folios are not only used for tracking charges while a guest is at the hotel, but also for issuing refunds or collecting unpaid charges after the guest has departed. Like for example, damages resulting from a wild-party in a hotel room. So using an accurate address on the folio is vital for financial accountability. So why would McLeod falsify his address? That's potential fraud if there was any money owing. Furthermore, why didn't the City of Tukwila catch this?

Tom McLeod—PDC Complaint

According to Tukwila's own website Councilmember Tom McLeod is a "Tax Accountant" (Exhibit-025.pdf) and as such he should know the importance of accuracy and transparency. Out of all Tukwila Councilmembers McLeod should be held to a higher standard--his official reports should be thorough and accurate, especially reports to the PDC. Furthermore, McLeod is "campaigning" on his skills as an accountant to help him gain votes; (Exhibit-026.pdf) yet he did not report gift compensation from CPD on his F1 covering 2018. If being an accountant is a "selling point" of his campaign, what does it mean if he's actually indifferent toward following the PDC financial disclosure laws? Or even worse, if he has deliberately concealed gift compensation--received from an organization that previously engaged in voter fraud! (See Exhibit-050.pdf and Exhibit-043.pdf showing the connections between the CPD, ACORN, and voter fraud.) This effort to conceal gifts was clearly in collusion with other Tukwila Councilmembers, who ALL had to "look the other way" regarding their own Travel Policy and reporting to the public. The public has a right to know who is giving gifts to their elected officials, especially if that person wears the title "accountant" like a badge of honor.

Through a targeted Public Disclosure Request from the City of Tukwila I received confirmation that CPD paid the City of Tukwila $600 total. (Exhibit-298.pdf) This included three entries of "LP National Convening Travel Reimbursement" presumably as financial aid of $200 each for three Tukwila Councilmembers attending that event--De'Sean Quinn, Zak Idan, and Tom McLeod.

In summary, McLeod failed to report the following items on his F1 covering 2018 (Exhibit-031.pdf):

1. Gifts in the form of food and beverage--Unknown dollar value
2. Gift of reimbursed transportation expenses--$200
3. Gift of one-half lodging expenses--$202.54
4. Any other gifts related to this travel event, not explicitly identified above.

And lest there's any doubt about whether Tukwila Councilmember Tom McLeod KNEW it was wrong to accept such gifts, and hide them from the public, CPD themselves included the following legal notice regarding ethics and gifts, sent directly to McLeod via email, "Members should ensure that their attendance at the conference and receipt of financial aid is permissible under local regulations pertaining to ethics and gifts..." (Exhibit-286.pdf) Thus, McLeod had no excuse for NOT reporting these gifts to the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC).

I request the PDC to inform McLeod that he MUST revise his 2018 F1 to include all such gifts related to this event.

I plan to include the foregoing information in an Ethics Complaint to the City of Tukwila, just for reference.

Surprisingly, this is the first complaint I have filed against this Councilmember, so there is no history of campaign finance violations to reference in this case. Hopefully, this doesn't become a pattern for this politician.

Best Regards,

Glen Morgan

Pattern of Concealing Gift Compensation

Introduction

This exhibit describes how Tukwila City Councilmembers and certain city staff colluded to conceal inappropriate travel and gift compensation for the years 2016, 2017, and 2018. It also describes my efforts to understand whether this was deliberate cover-up or merely an oversight to fully disclose. Note: even a oversight is a violation, but "intent" is important to determine whether a violation is malicious. I'll present evidence below that this ongoing cover-up was indeed (and still is) a malicious and deliberate effort to conceal wrongdoing from the public.

I conducted most of my investigation through the focused use of Public Disclosure Requests (PDRs) and by reviewing publically available records online. My investigation into Tukwila has thus far occupied several years and will likely continue for a few more.

Background

RCW 42.17A.700 requires certain public officials in Washington state to file an annual Statement of Financial Affairs (F1) with the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC). The purpose of the F1 is to inform the public how these officials were compensated during the prior year. The necessary Contents of the F1 are defined in RCW 42.17A.710. (Exhibit-005.pdf)

The state anticipates that while pursuing their official duties public officers will incur reasonable expenses. However, such expenses should normally be paid by the agency they serve, not by a third party. When a third-party does pay these expenses this is considered a "gift" or "gift compensation" and the amount of that compensation needs to be disclosed on the official's next annual F1. RCW 42.52.150 (Exhibit-007.pdf) defines limitations on gifts given to public officials, with paragraph (5) referring to "gifts in the form of food and beverage". And RCW 42.52.010 (Exhibit-021.pdf) contains the definition of gift. NOTE: According to the definition there could be some debate on whether or not food and beverages and even travel and lodging are always a reportable "gift" under all circumstances. However, according to RCW 42.17A.710 (l) & (m) (Exhibit-005.pdf) there's no doubt these items still need to be disclosed on the next annual F1, whatever they are called. I'm referring to them as "gift compensation" because they're clearly something "of economic value for which no consideration is given" and the state requires them to be disclosed.

The Tukwila Travel Policy (Exhibit-101.pdf) requires City Councilmembers to, "Upon returning from a class or conference, Councilmembers will prepare an oral or written report for the Council." The entire City Council is the recipient of such a report, so I believe a failure to enforce this obligation falls on all of them.

Evidence

Much of the communication for this travel was conducted using private email accounts, instead of using email accounts provided by the City of Tukwila. So when I asked for records via PDRs, a lot of the information was missing. That was a "red flag" that they were trying to conceal something they didn't want the public to know. Frequently, initial communications for any given travel event began using private emails. I had to rely on those few emails which were forwarded to an official City of Tukwila email account to decipher what had occurred. Throughout the various complaints, which are still largely in-work, I plan to identify when there's evidence of private emails being used. That evidence will be scattered among different exhibits.

Upon reviewing thousands of records obtained by PDR and reviewing hundreds of hours of City Council videos on Tukwila's own website I could NEVER find ANY evidence that they EVER reported EVEN ONCE on any travel where they received gift compensation from outside organizations. Yet they FREQUENTLY reported on travel to OTHER EVENTS, such as the National League of Cities (NLC) and Association of Washington Cities (AWC). Why the discrepancy? Why did they provide oral reports on other travel events, but not for those for which they received compensation? And why didn't they report the compensation on their F1s? Both obligations to report were missing!

I can demonstrate through PDC complaints that four Tukwila City Councilmembers failed to properly report gift compensation on their F1s. That much is simple. But the dilemma is how can I present evidence of something that was supposed to occur (an oral or written report), but didn't? There is no evidence. The relevant evidence is their failure to report on inappropriate travel compensation, in contrast to other travel. The evidence to the contrary is conspicuous by its absence. Early in my investigation it became clear this was deliberate collusion by other Councilmembers to conceal evidence of illegal compensation -- compensation in the form of reimbursed expenses by third-parties.

To confirm my suspicion I chose one travel event and asked via PDR for any records where a report was given. Their reply? "No Responsive Records" (See email exchange below.)

RE: PUBLIC RECORDS REQUEST RECEIVED 7/10/2019

The City of Tukwila is in receipt of your public records request received via email in the City Clerk's Office on July 10, 2019. Due to an unforeseen and extended illness within the City Clerk's Office, our office will be assisting in processing some of the City's public records requests. In summary, the request is for Councilmember De'Sean Quinn's prepared oral or written report of his attendance at the New American Leaders Conference in Washington DC in November 2017.

The Revised Code of Washington (RCW) requires a prompt response to all requests for public record. Within five business days, the City must:

1. Make the record available for inspection or copying; or
2. Provide an internet address and link on the agency's website to the specific records requested; or
3. Acknowledge that the request has been received and provide a reasonable estimate of when records will be available; or
4. Request clarification and to the greatest extent possible, provide an estimate of the time to respond if the request is not clarified; or
5. Deny the request and provide a statutory reason as to why the request is being denied.

City staff has completed their search and determined no responsive records are available.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 425-392-7090. Please respond to this email to ensure you are in receipt. Thank you.

Subject: PRA Request - 7-9-19 - Quinn Travel Questions

Attention Public Records Officer,

I am filing this as an official request for public records pursuant to RCW 42.56.

Please see attached files as background.

File 2017.pdf.pgs264-276.pdf is an extract of 13 pages from a file obtained from the City of Tukwila via Public Disclosure Request. It shows that Councilmember De'Sean Quinn traveled to Washington DC in November 2017 to attend a conference of the New American Leaders.

File WhatWeDo-NAL.pdf is a print from the New American Leaders web site. This organization prepares immigrants to run for political office. As such, attendance at this conference at taxpayer expense is a misuse of public funds.

File CC-POL-06 Council Travel Policy.pdf is the City of Tukwila Travel policy for City Council members. Section II.C states:

"Upon returning from a class or conference, Councilmembers will prepare an oral or written report for the Council."

Please provide any public records proving that "upon returning" Councilmember De'Sean Quinn prepared either an oral or written report of his attendance at this conference.

While I believe this request is clear, as the statute requires, please construe this request liberally. However, if you need further clarification about this request, please feel free to contact me.

I would prefer to receive these records digitally via email.

Best Regards,

Glen Morgan

Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now (ACORN) is an international collection of autonomous community-based organizations that advocated for low- and moderate-income families by working on neighborhood safety, voter registration, health care, affordable housing, and other social issues. They, along with a number of other community unions, are affiliated under ACORN International.^[1]

Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now

Abbreviation	ACORN
Formation	1970
Type	Non-governmental organization
Legal status	Active; defunct (US)
Region served	United States · Peru · Argentina · Mexico · India · Canada · United Kingdom

Organization

In the US, ACORN was composed of a number of legally distinct nonprofit entities and affiliates including a nationwide umbrella organization established as a 501(c)(4) that performed lobbying; local chapters established as 501(c)(3) nonpartisan charities; and the national nonprofit and nonstock organization, ACORN Housing Corporation. ACORN's priorities included: better housing and wages for the poor, more community development investment from banks and governments, better public schools, labor-oriented causes and social justice issues. ACORN pursued these goals through demonstration, negotiation, lobbying for legislation, and voter participation.^[2]

Unlike in the US, ACORN groups in other countries have little organisational funding.^[1] Under the ACORN model, most members are volunteers. Employed union organisers come from those working in local ACORN campaigns rather than from existing organisations and are paid a low wage.^[1] The union works on local and national level campaigns.^[1]

History

Founded in 1970 by Wade Rathke and Gary Delgado,^[3] at its peak ACORN had over 500,000 members and more than 1,200 neighborhood chapters in over 100 cities across the U.S.^{[4][5]} as well as groups in other countries. In 2004, ACORN International was created to aid the spread of ACORN's model to other countries.^[1] For example, there has been or currently is an ACORN presence in Argentina, Canada, Mexico, Peru^[6] and the UK,^[7] with affiliate groups in Scotland^[8] and France.^[9]

In the US, ACORN suffered a damaging nationwide controversy in the fall of 2009 after James O'Keefe and Hannah Giles secretly made, edited and released videos of interactions with low-level ACORN personnel in several of their offices, leading to several investigations by state officials that concluded the videos were inaccurately portraying the personnel as encouraging criminal behavior.^{[10][11][12][13][14][15][16][17]} The organization didn't recover in the US and dissolved,^{[18][19][20][21][22]} with ACORN members and organizers forming new organizations.^{[23][24][18]} ACORN groups outside of the US continued unaffected. ACORN, under ACORN International, still works within the US through its Home Savers Campaign, for example.^[25]

Issues and actions

Predatory lending and affordable housing

ACORN investigated complaints against companies accused of predatory lending practices. ACORN also worked to support strict state laws against predatory practices, organized against foreclosure rescue scams, and steered borrowers toward loan counseling.^[26] Following a three-year campaign, Household International (now owned by HSBC Holdings and renamed HSBC Finance Corporation), one of the largest subprime lenders in the country, and ACORN announced on November 25, 2003 a proposed settlement of a 2002 national class-action lawsuit brought by ACORN. The settlement created a $72 million foreclosure avoidance program to provide relief to household borrowers who were at risk of losing their homes.^[26] The settlement came on the heels of an earlier $484 million settlement between Household, Attorneys General, and bank regulators from all 50 U.S. states.^[27]

Education

ACORN opposed the privatization of some NYC schools, favoring its own Charter School plan.^[28]

Voter registration

Since the 1980s, ACORN conducted large-scale voter registration drives,^[29] focusing primarily on registering poor and minority citizens.^{[30][31]}

In addition to conducting voter registration drives, ACORN worked to remove obstacles to voter registration. In 2006, it brought a lawsuit in federal court in Ohio against the Ohio Secretary of State, at that time Ken Blackwell, and the Director of the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, alleging that, during the period that included the 2004 United States election voting controversies, the defendants had committed multiple violations of the National Voter Registration Act of 1993. The district court dismissed the case, but that decision was reversed in 2008 by the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.^[32] The parties agreed to a settlement, under which the defendants agreed to implement several measures to facilitate registration of low-income voters to bring the state into compliance with the National Voting Rights Act.^{[33][34][35]}

Gun control

In 2006, ACORN intervened on behalf of Jersey City, New Jersey, in a lawsuit brought against the city challenging a local ordinance that limited individuals' handgun purchases to one gun a month.^[36] The Hudson County Superior Court struck down the ordinance on the grounds that it violated the New Jersey Constitution's Equal Protection clause, and a state statute prohibiting towns and municipalities from enacting firearms legislation.^[36] On September 29, 2008, the New Jersey Superior Court Appellate Division denied ACORN's appeal of the Hudson County Superior Court's decision striking down Jersey City's ordinance.^[37]

Home Defender Program

In 2009, ACORN advocated allowing homeowners delinquent in their mortgage payments to remain in their homes pending a government solution to the housing foreclosure crisis. ACORN introduced a program called the Home Defender Program, intended to mobilize people to congregate at homes faced with foreclosure to "defend a family's right to stay in their homes."^{[38][39]}

Legal issues

During the 2008 election season, ACORN gathered over 1.3 million voter registration forms in 21 states. Project Vote estimated that 400,000 registrations collected by ACORN were ultimately rejected, the vast majority for being duplicate registrations submitted by citizens. Project Vote estimated that only a few percent of registrations were fraudulent, based on past years and samples from some drives in 2008.^[40] Project Vote estimated that 450,000 of the registrations collected by ACORN represented first-time voters, while the remainder were address changes submitted by citizens updating their addresses.^[40]

ACORN has fired employees for fraudulent registration practices and turned them over to authorities.^{[41][42][43][44][45][46]} Of 26,513 registrations submitted by ACORN over a nine-month period in San Diego County, California, 4,655 were initially flagged, but 2,806 of those were later validated. County officials said this resulted in a 7% error rate by ACORN, compared to usually less than 5% for voter drives by other organizations.^[47]

In a 2007 case in Washington state, in which seven temporary employees of ACORN were charged with submitting fraudulent voter registrations, ACORN agreed to pay King County $25,000 for its investigative costs and acknowledged that the national organization could be subject to criminal prosecution if fraud occurred.^{[42][48][49][50][51]} In May 2009, six ACORN employees in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, pleaded guilty to charges of a combined total of 51 counts of forgery and other violations while registering voters during the 2008 election cycle.^[52]

In plea deals in a 2009 Las Vegas case, former ACORN field director Amy Busefink and ACORN official Christopher Edwards pleaded guilty to "conspiracy to commit the crime of compensation for registration of voters," in connection with a quota system for paid registration staff.^[53] Edwards was sentenced to a year's probation and agreed to testify for prosecutors in charges against ACORN and against Busefink. Busefink appealed her case to the Nevada Supreme Court, challenging the constitutionality of the statute.^{[54][55]} In April 2011, ACORN entered a guilty plea to one count of felony compensation for registration of voters, for which they were fined $5000,^[56] but did not concede that the law was constitutional.^[55]

ACORN International

ACORN International was created in 2004 as an offshoot of ACORN to aid the spread of ACORN's model to other countries,^[1] including Argentina, Canada, Mexico, and Peru.^[6] The first ACORN branch in the UK opened in Bristol in 2014 by three people, two of whom were graduates of the Community Organisers programme.^[7]

Other groups are affiliated with ACORN: for example, Living Rent in Scotland^[8] and Alliance Citoyenne in France.^[9]

Center for Popular Democracy

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Center for Popular Democracy (CPD) is an American advocacy group that promotes progressive politics.^{[3][4][5]} CPD is a federation of groups that includes some of the old chapters of ACORN.^[6] The group's stated goal is to "envision and win an innovative pro-worker, pro-immigrant, racial and economic justice agenda."^[7] The organization is allied with teachers' unions and has published studies criticizing charter schools.^{[8][9]}

Campaigns and actions

The organization gained national prominence during the protests over Brett Kavanaugh's nomination to the United States Supreme Court. One of the organization's co-executive directors, Ana Maria Archila, confronted U.S. Senator Jeff Flake over his support for the judge^{[10][11]} and other activists had questions for U.S. Senator Rand Paul.^[12]

Private prisons

CPD has run a years-long campaign against private prisons, and prison companies have warned investors that activist groups are a threat to their future profitability.^[13] This notice to investors came after lenders like JP Morgan Chase bowed to pressure from CPD and other groups and agreed to stop doing business with prison companies.^[14]

Local Progress

Local Progress is a project of CPD, and works to organize grassroots groups on the outside and progressive politicians on the inside to advance an inside/outside strategy for change. It was founded in 2012 to connect progressive leaders in different cities so they can learn from each other's experiences, share policy ideas and model legislation.^[15] It also regularly brings local officials together so they can learn from each other in person and share ideas.^{[16][17]} Local Progress board members include Brad Lander, Helen Gym, Gregorio Casar, Phillipe Cunningham, Tefere Gebre, Lorena González, and other local officials and national progressive leaders.^[18]

OUR NETWORK

Local Progress's network includes hundreds of members in nearly every state – Mayors, Town and City Councilmembers, School Board Members, County Legislators and many others. Our network includes members from 70% of the nation's 50 largest cities, as well as members from hundreds of suburban, rural and urban jurisdictions. The network includes the progressive champion mayors of large cities like Newark, New Orleans, New York, Pittsburgh, and Philadelphia and the leading progressive councilmembers from cities as diverse as Austin, Baltimore, Dallas, Chicago, Denver, Miami, Nashville, Philadelphia, and San Diego. The network also includes district attorneys, county commissioners, and elected officials representing small cities, rural towns, and school districts. Local Progress has a strong focus on supporting and developing the leadership of women and people of color in elected office.

Home > Personal Financial Affairs Disclosure Instructions > Completing The F-1 > Gifts and Travel

Gifts and Travel

This section applies only to state and local elected officials and executive state officers filing annual reports. A candidate or newly appointed filer will not be asked these questions.

The Law Requires:

F-1 annual filers must disclose:

- A list of each occasion, specifying date, donor, and amount, at which food and beverage in excess of fifty dollars was accepted under RCW 42.52.150(5) and
- A list of each occasion, specifying date, donor, and amount, at which items specified in RCW 42.52.010(9)(d) and (f) were accepted.

RCW 42.17A.710(1)(l) and (m). These provisions relate to state officials. In 1995, the Public Disclosure Commission determined that having local officials also report receipt of these types of items was consistent with the purposes of the disclosure law.

Explanation:

When completing the annual report, filers must disclose the amount received and sources of payments for:

1. Food and beverages costing over $50 per occasion, excluding certain receptions as defined in WAC 390-20-020A;
2. Travel occasions, and
3. Seminars, course fees, educational programs or other training provided, in whole or in part, to the filer, spouse or registered domestic partner, dependents, or a combination thereof, by a source other than yourself or your own governmental agency (unless one of the exemptions discussed below applies).

As such, the qualifiers in RCW 42.52.010(10)(d) and (f) cited above are not relevant when reporting items received. That is, if travel expenses were received beyond what these statutes refer to as "reasonable expenses," the entire amount received for travel is nonetheless reported. And, if some person or entity other than a bona fide nonprofit, professional, educational or trade association or charitable institution has paid for educational fees and travel expenses, the actual source of the payment must be reported. [These reporting requirements do not constitute authority to accept any item or benefit not permitted by the State Ethics law or any applicable local ethics ordinance.]

When reporting food/beverages, travel, field trips and other excursions, or educational occasions provided at least in part by some source other than you or your governmental agency:

- Identify the recipient
- Identify the date you and/or your family received the item,
- Show the donor's name, city and state,
- Give a brief description of the event, and
- Provide the actual dollar amount for the occasion that benefited you and/or your family members and also note the amount code of the range in which the amount falls.

Report The Full Value

When determining whether a food and beverage occasion costs over $50 and needs to be reported on the F-1, calculate whether the original cost of all food and beverages provided to you and/or your family members totaled in excess of $50. If so, the occasion is reportable (unless one of the exemptions below is satisfied) even if you paid a portion of the costs attributable to you. For example, if a lobbyist spends $60 for your dinner and you give him or her $10 (perhaps thinking that this would mean the dinner would fall below the reporting threshold), you still need to report receipt of this dinner valued at $60. You may note on the form that you reimbursed the lobbyist $10 if you wish. The occasion would NOT be reportable only if you paid the full value of the benefit realized by you and/or your family members. In the above example, that's the entire $60.

When reporting the value of travel occasions, include the full value of any transportation, meals, lodging, entertainment, and other miscellaneous items or services paid for or otherwise provided to you and your family in connection with the event.

When reporting the value of seminars or other training, report the standard admission fee or, if there is no such fee, the pro rated cost of the seminar or training attributable to you. To compute this cost, divide the full cost of holding the event by the number of persons who were expected to attend. Multiply this amount by the number of your family members who attended. That is, multiply by two if you and your spouse attended.

Examples of reportable items received:

- Free admission to a seminar at which other attendees pay an admission fee (unless you are a speaker, panelist or have some other significant, official role at the event);
- All transportation, lodging, meals and other expenditures associated with an official and spouse attending a conference as the guests of a trade association;
- Dinner attended by an official and the value of the food and beverages attributable to the official exceeds $50; and
- A corporation provides several members of a legislative committee, as well as staff, with lunch and an aerial tour of its facility; each official and employee will report his or her pro-rated share of the value of this occasion.

If an employee or official held positions in two or more public agencies during the reporting period, either agency could pay for food and beverages, travel or training without the employee or official having to report receipt of the item. For example, an elected county sheriff also serves on a state commission. If this state commission pays for the sheriff's travel expenses to and from meetings, these expenditures are not reportable by the sheriff.

Exemptions

There are six circumstances where an otherwise reportable food, travel or educational occasion is exempt from reporting:

1. It came from family members or friends where it is clear beyond a reasonable doubt that it was not given as part of any design to gain or maintain influence;

2. It is related to your or an immediate family member's outside business and is customary and not related to your performance as a public official
3. It is part of an exchange among officials and employees;
4. The occasion is a social event hosted or sponsored by a coworker;
5. Any food, travel or education fee discount made available to you or your family members was also available to other members of the broad-based group to which you or they belonged; and
6. You or a family member returned the item to the donor within 30 days of receipt or gave it to a charitable organization within 30 days of receipt.

Attribution of Items Received by Family Members

As has been noted throughout this section, any reportable items or occasions received by your spouse or registered domestic partner or dependents are attributable to and reportable by you, unless the occasion is exempt from reporting as described above (or if an independent business, family or social relationship exists between the donor and the recipient).

Notice From Lobbyists

Persons who lobby at the state level and who give a reportable item to a state elected official or the official's family member are required to provide that official with a copy of their monthly lobbying report (Form L-2 or the Memo Report) disclosing information about the occasion, including cost. Although receipt of reportable items from any non-exempt source is reportable by you, state-level lobbyists are the only persons required by law to supply notice. You have the ultimate responsibility to make sure that your disclosure statement shows each reportable item you or an immediate family member received.

Hi Erick,

I am responding to PDC Case number 100205, a complaint filed by Glen Morgan. The complaint claims I failed to report compensation paid to me by the Center for Popular Democracy (CPD) to attend their Local Progress (LP) event in July 2018 in Minneapolis, MN.

Failure to Report - I was invited to attend the policy making conference by Local Progress. As a Tukwila City Councilmember, they offered to pay $200 towards airfare, and cover up to 3 nights stay in the hotel where the conference was being held (Hilton Hotel, Minneapolis, MN). I accepted the invitation as a chance to better understand progressive policy making. By nature, I tend to be conservative and wanted to see policy making from a different perspective. I believe at the time of my F1 filing that the scholarship / travel stipend that was offered was exempted from reporting because it was also offered to all members of our group, but if the PDC believes that I should amend the F1 report, I will happily make that edit.

There are several false claims in the complaint filed by Glen Morgan, and I would like to clear the record and my name.

I did travel to Minneapolis alone and attended the Local Progress conference in Minneapolis, MN from the evening of Thursday, July 12 – Saturday, July 14, 2018.

The conference host, Local Progress, provided morning snacks in the back of the conference rooms, and a happy hour of finger foods at the end of the day. I paid for all my daily meals with personal funds.

I only stayed two nights in the hotel, Thursday, and Friday night, because on Saturday evening, my son, who lives in nearby Hudson, WI, came to pick me up and take me to his apartment. I spent the night with him on Saturday night, and on Sunday, he drove me around Hudson, WI and Minneapolis, MN on the way to my Sunday evening flight. No other person stayed in my hotel on Thursday and Friday.

Glen Morgan asserts I used a false address of 1730 M St NW, Washington, DC 20036 as my home address for my hotel reservation. Glen asserts this to be the address of the Abigail Nightclub, which is true, Suite #100. However, up on floor 11 of the same building is the offices of the Center for Popular Democracy (CPD), Suite #1115. I find it interesting that an investigative citizen journalist as Glen could locate the Abigail Nightclub in Suite #100 and overlook the CPD office in Suite #1115 of the same building.

I am requesting the PDC reject Glen Morgan's claim and false narrative.

Regards,
Thoms W. McLeod

TITLE: COUNCILMEMBER TRAVEL

PURPOSE:

Councilmembers are encouraged to be actively involved in city, county, state, regional and national organizations that affect Tukwila, its residents, and its businesses. Education, lobbying, professional responsibilities, (e.g. policy boards, offices, and committees), public relations, and relationship-building with other agencies are examples of activities for which travel funds can be used. While the entire Council approves the travel budget, it is up to individual Councilmembers to decide how best to use their own travel allotment.

REFERENCES:

N/A

STATEMENT OF POLICY AND/OR PROCEDURES:

I. Travel Budgets

- A. Budgets for Council travel will be set during the biennial budget process and adjusted during the second year, if necessary.
- B. Review of the preceding year's travel may serve as a guide in allocating travel for the following year.
- C. The Council will consider the City's financial situation in setting its annual travel budget.

II. Travel Decisions

- A. Beginning each year, after funds for local meetings, the Council retreat, and meals are subtracted, each Councilmember will be allotted an equal share of the remaining Council travel budget for use during the remainder of the year. That amount shall be communicated to all Councilmembers as soon as available.
- B. Any Councilmember's travel funds which are not planned to be used in that year may be returned to the shared travel fund for use by other Councilmembers.
- C. Upon returning from a class or conference, Councilmembers will prepare an oral or written report for the Council. If more than one Councilmember attends, a consolidated report may be presented.
- D. Sister City related travel is not budgeted separately and will be funded from the individual Councilmember's travel allocation.
- E. The entire Council, by majority, will make the final decision on use of funds if issues arise.

III. Travel Expenses

- A. The City will pay for airfare, ground transportation, registration, hotel, and meals when a Councilmember is on official travel.
- B. The City will not assume costs for a spouse, partner or guest.
- C. A daily record of expenses for lodging, meals, transportation, and incidental expenses should be maintained, with receipts attached to the record. An itemized bill should be kept for meals. The record and receipts will be submitted to the Finance Department and processed in accordance with current procedures.

IV. Travel Arrangements

- A. City Council travel will be coordinated through the Council Analyst, who will monitor the travel budget as well as make travel arrangements if desired by the Councilmember.
- B. Intention for out-of-state travel should be communicated to the Council President.
- C. Significant effort will be made to secure the best value for airfare and lodgings.

V. Miscellaneous

- A. When a City vehicle is available, it may be reserved by Councilmembers for appropriate business-related travel.
- B. If a Councilmember uses his or her personal vehicle for City-related travel, mileage will be reimbursed according to IRS rules.

Hi Laura,

I received De'Sean's RSVP, thank you. We'd love to have other Tukwila councilmembers attend the summit! The only requirement to receive travel funding is to have the councilmember sign up to be a WaterNow Alliance Member. WNA membership is free and you just have to be an elected official with voting power over your water utility. He can sign up here.

Please let me know if you have any questions!

Subject: Local Progress 2018 Hotel and Financial Aid Confirmation - Idan

To: zak.idan@tukwilawa.gov

Hello Councilmember Zak Idan,

This email confirms your hotel & financial aid information for the upcoming Local Progress National Convening, July 13 - 14th in Minneapolis. Please read it carefully & contact Ari Schwartz (aschwartz@populardemocracy.org) with any questions or corrections.

Registration Information:

You can find your registration status for the following programs below:

Local Progress Convening (July 13 - 14)

REGISTERED

Women's Caucus Training (July 12)

NOT REGISTERED

Minneapolis City Tour (2:00pm hotel departure on July 12)

REGISTERED

In addition all women Local Progress members are welcome to join the Women's Caucus Reception at 6:00pm on Thursday evening at Ruth's Chris Steak House (920 2nd Avenue South, Suite 100 Minneapolis, MN 55402) – no registration necessary.

Hotel Information:

Our hotel and convening location are at the Hilton Minneapolis (1001 Marquette Ave South, Minneapolis, MN 55403). The hotel room rate is $179 plus tax per night.

- Based on the submission of your financial aid form, we have submitted your booking for the following nights:

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday (July 11, 12, 13 and 14)

- Your hotel booking will be a Single. Your hotel room will be 50 Percent covered by Local Progress based on your room type.

If you are in a double with a roommate, we will make every effort to accommodate the roommate you requested, however we cannot guarantee that specific roommate.*

For those who are in a single, please note that your room costs in a single are not fully covered by Local Progress, so please be prepared to pay the 50 percent difference upon check in.*

Travel Reimbursement:

You are eligible to submit a total travel reimbursement up to the amount of $200. If you have not done so, please send a W9 and your receipt to aschwartz@populardemocracy.org by June 27th, otherwise we cannot guarantee your reimbursement will be available for pick-up in Minneapolis (we will mail it afterwards). If you have any questions or corrections, please contact Ari Schwartz (aschwartz@populardemocracy.org) ASAP.

We look forward to seeing you in Minneapolis!

Local Progress is a 501 c(3) membership based organization of elected officials committed to a strong economy, equal justice, livable cities and effective government. During our convening, we will provide food and beverages to members. Additionally in order to facilitate our members' participation in organizational events like our convening, we offer financial aid grants to partially offset travel and hotel costs for members who request aid. Members should ensure that their attendance at the conference and receipt of financial aid is permissible under local regulations pertaining to ethics and gifts in their legislative bodies. We can reimburse individuals, and city and county governments but not campaign committees. If you have any questions or concerns please contact Local Progress Director Sarah Johnson at sjohnson@populardemocracy.org.

Logistics Memo 2018 Local Progress Convening.pdf (436.6 KB)

Hi Local Progress Convening attendees,

We are excited that you are joining us in Minneapolis this week for the seventh Local Progress National Convening!

Here is the final agenda for the pre-convening programming on Thursday, July 12, full convening on Friday, July 13 and Saturday, July 14, as well as the Minnesota-only meeting on July 15.

We have also attached a brief logistics memo with information you might need, including hotel and meeting locations.

If you have any problems when checking into the hotel, please contact Isabel Bombaes at 347.377.2922.

If you have not yet specified any accessibility needs, please email Ari Schwartz (aschwartz@populardemocracy.org) immediately specifying your needs.

If you would like to pre-authorize a credit card for hotel charges, particularly if you will not have the card with you, you should contact the hotel directly before your arrival and use the attached form.

Below are sample tweets to share your excitement about the convening on social media and to start building the buzz for #LP2018!

Sample tweets:

- Can't wait to join progressive electeds moving our localities boldly forward at #LP2018 in Minneapolis this weekend @localprogress
- Headed to Minneapolis this weekend to join 100s of my peers fighting for stronger, more equitable cities at #LP2018 @localprogress
- Excited to meet fellow local electeds at #LP2018 this weekend & learn new ways to build our collective power @localprogress

Or, here is a tweet you can share on your account to hype up the Local Progress convening this week, or if you'd rather write your own message, attached is a sample graphic you could use.

Thanks, and looking forward to seeing you there!

In solidarity,
Ari and the whole Local Progress team

P.S. Breaking news! More than 100 state and local elected officials signed onto a letter calling to Abolish ICE! You can join dozens of your Local Progress colleagues by signing here. To learn more, check out the article here.

Local Progress DRAFT SOTU Response (DO NOT DISTRIBUTE)

Attachments: LP 2018 DRAFT SOTU Response.docx (23.3 KB)

Dear Local Progress Members,

On the eve of Trump's first State of the Union, we wanted to share our draft response, should the frame and narrative be helpful to you in crafting your own release.

Please DO NOT DISTRIBUTE this document. It is for your reference only.

We will be sharing the final version of statement on Facebook and Twitter after the speech and encourage you to share that when it is live.

If you do release your own statement, please make sure to flag for us by sending to Ari Schwartz (aschwartz@populardemocracy.org).

With deep appreciation for all that you do,
Tarsi

LP police reform call -- some materials and agenda for 6/12 call

Attachments: LP police reform toolkit - draft for working_group_6.8.18.docx (34.7 KB)

Hi all,

I wanted to send a quick reminder about the Local Progress police reform working group call on Tuesday 6/12 at 12:00 ET/9:00 PT.

In advance of the call next week, we wanted to share a couple of things with you that we'll discuss on the call. I've included here a short excerpt from the toolkit (please don't share as it's still in draft, text only form) that will give you a sense of the structure and format of the toolkit.

Agenda:

- Intros and city updates
- Update and overview of police reform toolkit
- Discussion on roll out and coordinating impact of toolkit in your respective cities and collectively

We're looking forward to talking and brainstorming with you all next week! If you can't make it but want to schedule some time separately to talk a bit more about the toolkit, please let me know. For those of you who have staff, they are also welcome to join the conversation.

Best,
Silvia

PS - a very special thanks to the offices of the following LP members who have spent time with us as we have been writing and learning from their experiences to include testimonials in the toolkit. DC Council Member Charles Allen, Albany Council Member Dorsey Appliers, Berkeley Council Member Kate Harrison, Seattle Council Member Lisa Herbold, Durham Council Member Jillian Johnson, New York City Council Member Antonio Reynoso, New York City Council Member Jumaane Williams, St. Louis Alderwoman Megan Green, Chicago Alderman Carlos Ramirez-Rosa, Santa Clara County Supervisor David Cortese, and former San Francisco Supervisor John Avalos.

Hi Thomas,

Great seeing you at Local Progress in Minneapolis! Hugely inspiring as always.

Thank you so much for signing up to support Elected Officials to Protect America's national climate justice electeds letter! We plan to launch Friday here at the Global Climate Action Summit in San Francisco, which is a big media moment to raise the bar for climate leadership to be protecting our communities from the impacts of fossil fuels. Attached is the draft letter, which calls for:

- 100% clean, renewable energy for all, starting with investing in disadvantaged communities
- End new permitting of fossil fuel projects and begin managed decline in fossil fuel production
- End public investment in and subsidies of fossil fuels

Here's the info I have from the form -- is this correct?

Thomas McLeod
Councilmember
Tukwila, WA

Please let me know any corrections by Thursday night. We can prepare a customized press release for you -- feel free to provide us a quote.

Thanks, Thomas!

Hi Zak,

Thanks for completing the financial aid form! We'll reserve a hotel room, cover half the cost, and we received your flight receipt so we're all set for a reimbursement.

Looking forward to meeting you in Minneapolis!

In the meantime, would you have time to schedule a 30 min phone call so that I can learn more about your priorities in office and tell you more about Local Progress? June 11 and June 13 are both pretty open for me.

Dear Local Progress members,

I write to you with an invitation made all the more urgent as we all watch with horror the Trump administration's inhumane attacks on refugees at our southern border. Local Progress members across the country have been resisting, fighting back, and standing up for immigrant communities. Dozens of you have passed laws to increase protections for immigrants and stop deportations in your cities, counties, and school boards. This summer, over 200 elected officials joined the growing national critique of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), which terrorizes immigrants and separates families in our communities.

The LP immigrant rights cohort would like to extend an invitation for the whole network to join a call with Congressional Progressive Caucus leaders Congressman Mark Pocan (D-WI 2) and Congresswoman Pramila Jayapal (D-WA 7).

Thursday, December 6

5:00 pm ET / 4:00 pm CT / 3:00 pm MT / 2:00 pm PT

RSVP TO THE CALL HERE

On this call we will hear about continued efforts to fight back against federal immigration policies, including a discussion of the upcoming omnibus bill in the House of Representatives. We will also discuss ways that local elected officials can work together in collective federal advocacy and in our own policy efforts.

We are thrilled to be joined by the co-chairs of the Congressional Progressive Caucus, who are leading a growing and powerful caucus of allies in Washington, and are leading the federal fights around so many issues Local Progress members work to advance every day. You won't want to miss this!

Hi Zak,

I've copied here Silvia our LP Campaigns Director and Emily Tucker, the Senior Staff Attorney for Immigrant Justice at Center for Popular Democracy.

Our impression is this ordinance looks good. I encourage you to look at this section of our recent policing reform toolkit, which enumerates best practices on this topic. Here is some feedback below; hopefully it's useful and we are happy to continue this conversation if this is too late to incorporate.

- Consider adding in Section 3 a provision that prohibits sharing with DHS information about a person's jail release date/time
- Consider adding in Section 3 a provision that prohibits arresting any individual on the basis of immigration-related information contained in the National Crime Information Center database

Silvia and Emily may have more thoughts that I missed.

Thanks for your leadership on this!

Hi Ari,

Thanks for getting back to me on this. Here's the link of the ordinance, it's on the agenda package on Monday's meeting.

I'd like to get your feedback at your earliest since we will be voting on it next Monday, the sooner the better.

I appreciate it.

Hi Zak,

I'm writing to follow up on our conversation from earlier in the summer about Tukwila and efforts to protect immigrant residents.

If I recall correctly, you mentioned that Tukwila has a welcoming city resolution but you're interested in exploring a strong ordinance that would disentangle municipal functions from immigration enforcement and alleviate fear of residents in that regard. And you've drafted an ordinance? Where do those efforts stand currently?

We've done quite a lot of work around the country supporting Local Progress members in drafting and passing these types of measures. I've copied Silvia our Campaigns Director who leads this work and we're eager to support your efforts on this front.

Best,
Ari
