Good morning!

Thank you for promptly notifying us of the recent complaint by a Washington State citizen, which has also demonstrated our unintended filing backlog.

The Washington State Progressive Caucus ceased donating to campaigns in 2019 and began the process of researching and assessing many other potential uses for our low-dollar member donations. As a result, we have refocused our mission on training, organizing, and knowledge building.

Our only expenditures have been for annual video conferencing tools and the small fees charged for incoming donations, which, while significantly lower than five or ten years ago, are occasionally still received from our members.

We acknowledge that our C1PC is, regrettably, not reflective of our current executive board, and will be correcting that very soon.

We additionally acknowledge we have some overdue reports to file. We are sending a data file, containing ORCA entries prior to the current ORCA tool, to a PDC filing specialist who will load those into the new ORCA tool. We will then be able to amend our C1PC, quickly file all past-due reports and then, there after, stay current on all reporting requirements.

Justin
