Mr. Agina,

Case 160692

Looks like according to Rep. Stokesbary who is many times more skilled at this than I am, that I may have made a mistake in using these funds to purchase these ads.

This was my first attempt at running for a state legislative office and I had thought that political funds could be spent for political ads. If I misunderstood that and Rep. Stokesbary is correct and the PDC finds this to have happened improperly, I will gladly write a check to make the public whole for the costs of these two ads. I certainly had no intent in harming the public, nor was there any intent of wanton disregard of Washington campaign finance laws.

Do let me know what your organization finds, and I will follow your direction.

Thank you,

Philip L. Johnson
