Complaint Description
Conner Edwards reported via the portal (Wed, 16 Oct 2024 at 4:31 PM) Description of Complaint See attached complaint. Notice to Respondent I apologize to you for any inconvenience caused by this complaint. The chance that you will actually be fined for the violations identified above is extremely small because the agency is averse to doing the work necessary to bring cases to hearings. Most likely this case – and any future cases against you – will simply be dismissed by staff with a so-called "warning letter". This complaint is one of hundreds that I have filed to highlight and ultimately fix the significant shortcomings associated with the agency responsible for administering our state's campaign finance laws. What are these shortcomings? Overcomplicated and outdated requirements that are difficult to understand and comply with. Failure to properly educate the regulated community about the tasks they must perform to remain in compliance with applicable requirements and avoid complaints. Failure of the agency to send regular reminders to filers about pending deadlines. A failure to proactively enforce applicable requirements which enables the complaint system to become weaponized. Non-intuitive, non-user friendly, and buggy reporting software. Failure to meaningfully enforce core requirements. Failure to follow the best operating practices of other neighboring campaign finance agencies. An agency leadership structure that largely disregards stakeholder input and is slow to identify and resolve major agency deficiencies. I believe that the best way to motivate the agency to address these problems is by filing a large number of complaints so that the agency's problems become impossible to ignore. Slowly (too slowly) this strategy is starting to yield concrete and beneficial changes. You can read about these changes here: https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/politics/why-one-man-filed-800-campaign-finance-complaints-against-wa-candidates/ If you believe that the agency could have done something different to help you proactively avoid the issues identified in this complaint, I hope that you will consider including it in your response. The agency, and the public, can benefit from your perspective and feedback. "Be the change that you wish to see in the world." — Mahatma Gandhi
What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
See complaint. The PDC has an obligation to provide transparency to the voters by enforcing disclosure requirements. The agency's failure to actively monitor compliance with these requirements and enforce them damages both the public and members of the regulated community.

Submitted: 10/16/24

Notice to Respondent by: 10/26/24 per WAC 390-37-050(1)

90 Day Initial Hearing Deadline: 1/14/25 per RCW 42.17A.755(3)

Statutes Violated: RCW 42.17A.235, .240

Background

Washington State's Campaign Finance Disclosure Law

One of the primary purposes of the public disclosure law is to provide citizens of this state, and especially voters, with the means for becoming informed about the financing of political campaigns.¹ The public disclosure law was enacted through voter approval of Initiative 276 in 1972.

State law requires candidates and committees that register under full reporting to submit regular reports of financial activity. Those reports are filed on schedules outlined on the PDC's key reporting dates calendar.²

When a political committee makes an expenditure benefitting a candidate appearing on the general election ballot or donates to a committee whose spending benefits a candidate appearing on the general election ballot, the committee becomes obligated to file reports on the same schedule that those candidates must follow.³

Reporting History of Multiple (11) Respondents

In the last several weeks, I filed complaints against all of these respondents which demonstrated that they failed to submit the required C3/C4 reports that were due according to the reporting schedule they were obligated to follow because of their participation in the primary general election.

Despite the fact that the complaint I filed contained clear evidence that these respondents failed to file reports by the required deadlines, the agency staff dismissed these complaints with so-called "reminder" letters.

² <https://pdc.wa.gov/registration-reporting/candidates-committees/registration-reporting-basics/key-dates-2024>

³ See RCW 42.17A.235(2) and RCW 42.17A.005(38)

The use of reminder letter dismissals (as opposed to warning letter dismissals) to dismiss complaints which accurately identify violations is a cynical misuse of the staff's enforcement powers.

Let me be clear: I don't believe that any of these filers intentionally failed to file the required reports by the appropriate deadline. However, regardless of their intent, the failure to file reports by the appropriate deadline is a violation.

PDC staff have long known that there is an issue with committees in our state filing reports on the appropriate schedule. Rather than admit the existence of this problem and work with stakeholders to come up with a solution that would solve this problem, the PDC staff have chosen to bury the problem under the rug with a mountain of "reminder" and "warning" letter dismissals.

This must change.

Violations

The above referenced 11 respondents "participated" in the 2024 general election by virtue of the expenditures that they made. See URLs listed below and also RCW 42.17A.005(38). As such, these respondent committees were obligated to file C4 reports by the 10/15/24 deadline.

They failed to do so, despite having received reminder letters only a few weeks prior. See attached.

Conclusion

With the 2024 general election rapidly approaching, I urge the PDC staff to take quick action and resolve the noncompliance identified in this complaint.

Notice to Respondent

I apologize to you for any inconvenience caused by this complaint. The chance that you will actually be fined for the violations identified above is extremely small because the agency is averse to doing the work necessary to bring cases to hearings. Most likely this case – and any future cases against you – will simply be dismissed by staff with a so-called "warning letter".

This complaint is one of hundreds that I have filed to highlight and ultimately fix the significant shortcomings associated with the agency responsible for administering our state's campaign finance laws.

What are these shortcomings?

Overcomplicated and outdated requirements that are difficult to understand and comply with. Failure to properly educate the regulated community about the tasks they must perform to remain in compliance with applicable requirements and avoid complaints. Failure of the agency to send regular reminders to filers about pending deadlines. A failure to proactively enforce applicable requirements which enables the complaint system to become weaponized. Non-intuitive, non-user friendly, and buggy reporting software. Failure to meaningfully enforce core requirements. Failure to follow the best operating practices of other neighboring campaign finance agencies. An agency leadership structure that largely disregards stakeholder input and is slow to identify and resolve major agency deficiencies.

I believe that the best way to motivate the agency to address these problems is by filing a large number of complaints so that the agency's problems become impossible to ignore.

Slowly (too slowly) this strategy is starting to yield concrete and beneficial changes. You can read about these changes here: <https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/politics/why-one-man-filed-800-campaign-finance-complaints-against-wa-candidates/>

If you believe that the agency could have done something different to help you proactively avoid the issues identified in this complaint, I hope that you will consider including it in your response. The agency, and the public, can benefit from your perspective and feedback.
