

Dear PDC, I did not check this email as I rarely do Since my campaign is run by myself and I have many duties to attend. I felt I was up to date on my filings and knew my next one was to be filed on November 12 th which it was. I happened to have some time tonight and looked at my Gmail account and to my surprise there was yet another complaint filed against me. I know I am tired of this and can't imagine how this department feels. I will call and talk with Colin Peoples tomorrow 7/15 or the following week and get this taken care of.

Jeff McHargue