Complaint Description
Suzanne Brooks  reported via the portal  a day ago (Mon, 2 Jun 2025 at 10:00 PM) Ashlee E. Johnson is a candidate for Sedro-Woolley School District #101, Director District 4, and has placed campaign yard signs around the school district that do not include the required sponsor identification. The attached photo shows her campaign sign as does the link to her social media page. State law requires that "All written political advertising, whether relating to candidates or ballot propositions, shall include the sponsor's name and address." Starting June 6, 2024, all campaign yard signs must include sponsor identification or "paid for by" statements.
What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?
The alleged violation compromises the public's right to transparency in campaign financing. Without proper disclosure, voters cannot determine who is financially supporting a candidate, which may influence the candidate's positions or priorities. This lack of transparency can erode trust in the electoral process and hinder informed decision-making by the electorate.
