

Ryan Logan Evans replied Wed, 9 Jul 2025

To: PDC Support pdc@pdc.wa.gov

This is the email you guys are accepting responses through, correct?

I will have my website remedied today. I feel terrible! I made it with my friend, and thought that was obvious enough. It's extra ironic that I reported a PDC violation on signs of an opponent that lacked this notification, so, as I've done this with all my printed media, I'll make sure it is done with this.

I did not realize there was an issue with reporting the donation as I did, as I thought everything had to be aligned with the filing of the C4 Date which is due on the 10 of each month. I am my own accountant and was making sure things were aligned.

As for the Anonymous Donation, this is the only spurious claim. An anonymous donor left me an envelope of $500 in cash, which I deposited and then reported. I have assumed the donor did not want to be investigated or reported, although they are welcome to come forward. As I have clearly labeled and tagged every other donation which has come through to my campaign, this should be clear and not an attempt of underhanded malice on my part (especially considering one of my opponents has self-funded 40+ thousand dollars of their own money, so I would be completely justified in giving a 500$ donation to myself if I believed in such things.)